Our Past

The Pizza Place opened its doors in 1967, established by the very same Col. Euell who brought the popular Mr. Gatti's Pizza to Austin a couple years later. The Pizza Place has continuously served the Stephenville community for nearly five decades. Driving down Harbin, folks can't help but enjoy the great memories of our familiar red-and-white sign. Even graduates of Tarleton State University find themselves taking their children for a slice of the same delicious pizza they enjoyed so much back in the college days. The Pizza Place's current owners Jim, Janet and Mike Tucker are truly committed to maintaining those ties to the Stephenville community which run so deep.

Our Present

Our kitchen features home-style cooking with fresh ingredients prepared in house. We bake everything to order, so you'll enjoy a crust that's crispy on the outside, and deliciously chewy on the inside. The Pizza Place also offers an array of favorites including lasagna and spaghetti prepared with our homemade sauce. Start your meal with a fresh salad, then polish it off with a scoop or two of Blue Bell ice cream, a Texas tradition since 1907. At The Pizza Place, we're proud to serve the Stephenville community. And we plan to be right here for years to come.
