RAPUNZEL, CINDERELLA, AND SNOW WHITE IN A MASH-UP MUSICAL FOR ALL AGES

RAPUNZARELLA WHITE

A fairly fractured tale by
JUNE RACHELSON-OSPA and DANIEL NEIDEN

Summary:

Rapunzel, Cinderella, and Snow White are triplets who are stolen by an angry witch. When she casts an evil spell, each sister is catapulted into her own fractured fairytale --Rapunzel craves junk food, Cinderella has self-esteem issues, Snow White is allergic to apples, and each dreams of being rescued by a handsome Prince.

Beau, Barry, and Burly Bob may be a little more bashful and bumbling than bright, but with the help of the Herschel the Fairy Tailor and the magic of true love they all live happily ever after.

Cast Size:

Rapunzarella White can be performed by as few as 8 actors in multiple roles, though some productions have expanded the cast to over 20. Performed by adults and kids alike.

Running time:

70 minutes without Intermission, though many productions have added an intermission.

Perusal Script/Score:

“...adventures unfold briskly, aided by actors who adeptly switch roles and by a score that gallops merrily through musical genres. . . . Although much of the broad humor seems directed toward adults, 'Rapunzarella White' has enough interactive moments and physical comedy to delight little ones.”

~ Laurel Graeber, The New York Times #NYT

RAPUNZARELLA WHITE - NYTIMES FAVORITE - NYC RUN

<https://youtu.be/zGihOTZMdnA>

“...an unabashed joy! Terrific music, an adorably sassy script, and zingers that keep parents laughing along.” ~ Bruce Kluger, Contributing Editor, Parenting Magazine

“Rapunzarella White is everything a kids show should be: Colorful, fun, inclusive, and totally delightful! It is a clever spin on three fairy tales that all of us know and love. Plus, the music and lyrics are smart and sharply performed by a talented group of actors.”

~ Jack Hyman, Author of "Breakfast with the Birds"

The 2015 New York City production ran at the 13th Street Repertory Theater for a six month run.
