T'ai Chi Chuan is popular all around the world.

What is T'ai Chi Chuan? A Chinese exercise with continuous movements which are designed to massage all joints, muscles and internal organs, strengthen the lower back and reduce stress. The uniqueness of the balancing incorporated in the moves has a relaxing effect. Concentration on the movements helps to empty the mind of daily problems.

In the beginners' class you will learn a 19-move Yang-Style set of T'ai Chi. This is the first section of the Long Form.
