In 1951, when Worcester Dining Car #831 was completed, only 19 more would ever be made.

Originally Manus' Diner in Concord, NH, it suffered a fire and was moved several times before finding its existing home on Union Avenue in Laconia. An addition was completed in 1994, and The Paugus Diner took its place serving good, wholesome, classic food and favorites at realistic prices.

Still mostly preserved, the Union Diner has recently undergone a renovation. We have kept its classic design trademarks that include solid construction and old-fashioned styling, that feature oak and mahogany woodwork, intricate ceramic tile patterns, and a backbar of stainless steel. Similar classic lunch car diners fed New England's working class; today, fewer than one hundred lunch cars still operate.

Today, we're here to do whatever is necessary to make you happy and bring you back. We want to be the "Diner's Diner." We're proud of our people who help make your visits special, and if you're not happy, we want to know about it so we can make it right.

What you can expect from the Union Diner:

- We serve the highest quality food at the lowest prices possible.
- We take good care of the customer and those who serve them.
- We care about people and want to do the right thing.
