

The January meeting of the Clinton County Board of Realtors was called to order by President Robyn Clifton. The Pledge of Alliance was recited. The minutes of last meeting were read with a motion to approve made by Bob Germann, second by Ken Lundy-motion passed. The treasurer report was given and a motion to approve made by Ray Sarkees, second by Sheri McIntosh-motion passed. The fund raising drawing was won by Rodney Carrauthers.

Under new business: Steve Rheile made an announcement/reminder about the Day of Caring which will be held on February 23rd @ the Friends church in Wilmington. Any and all help putting it on would be appreciated. Sarah Roe announced that Fairway Mortgage would be hosting a free continuing education class Wednesday January 15th. Just let her know if you would like to attend. A letter has been sent out to all affiliates for renewal. Please help and spread the word to any who would like to join.

Under old business: Sheri McIntosh thanks everyone who helped and showed up to the Christmas party. A special thank you to the brokers who donated auction items. It was a great success and we were able to raise over $1,500 towards the charities we sponsor. A reminder of the board dues. If not received by January 15th a late fee will be charged. Also, please pay RPAC, while it does say it is optional, the board still has to pay, so please pay it.

The speaker of the day was Bob Schaad who spoke about Clinton County Habitat.

A motion to adjourn was made by Ken Lundy.
