PHOTO GUIDELINES for PARENTS from The Lindner Studios

- Feel free to dress your child in bright colors. Avoid neutral colors or clothing with busy patterns.
- The photographer and school staff do their best to keep the children well groomed, but your attention to these details on school photo days (hair styled, clothes tucked in, buttons buttoned, etc.) will be helpful.
- Most Important! Don't tell your child that he/she must smile. The un-coached photo situation is what helps achieve portraits that are natural looking. To get the best possible photos, just tell your children to have fun!

Please join us for a special PA Coffee with literary consultant Nancy Newman!

Friday, April 15th Workshop
9:00am in Room B5

Early drop-off times are available
(8:40 – 8:50 Fours and Fives / 8:50 – 9:00 Toddlers and Threes)

- Coffee and a light breakfast will be served
- Please confirm attendance with your Class Parent (no little ones, please)

Background:

In this workshop, Nancy Newman will clarify when the word “early” matters in language development, dispel common myths about reading, and demonstrate simple, joyful, practical everyday strategies that boost language skills and ignite a lifelong passion for words and books in infants, toddlers and school age children.
