6. Old Business:

A. The Club held its May cruise on Sunday, May 12th. We met at the Stage parking lot and cruised to Summersville, MO. The weather turned out great and it didn't even rain or snow!! We started out with 8 Corvettes but picked up a 9th going through West Plains. Austin Rice saw us and joined in on the cruise and had lunch with us. It was a great day! May thanks to Brian and Lisa Thompson for organizing and leading the cruise. We had lunch at Savors Restaurant and it was excellent. Next month's cruise was to be led by Dave & Angie Washington but Dave said they would not be available to lead the cruise in June. More information will be posted on the website in regard to June cruise.

7. New Business:

A. Dave asked if anyone attended the Classic Chevy Club's show at Century 21 the previous Saturday/Sunday. No one acknowledged that they had.

B. Several members attended the car show at Calico Rock on Saturday April 27th. Kink and Pat and Jack and Kathy said it was a good show.

C. Dave asked if we should start a new T-shirt order since we have some new members. Everyone agreed that we should. Dave will be calling Cotton Company to get a new order started. If anyone needs a new shirt please go down and get your order placed. As usual they need an order of 12 to get it going.
