9. Walk/Trot: If you are showing in the walk/trot division you cannot show in the 3-gaited divisions. The walk/trot divisions are designed to be a stepping stone for children/adults new to showing. In the event a walk/trot rider wished to enter a 3-gaited division, points will not be carried over to the new division during the show year and vice versa. The champion and reserve champion for each walk trot division will be required to show in the three gaited division the following year.

This division will be given an English Division Year End award and a Western Division Year End award. Daily highpoints will be calculated as a combination of Western and English points.

11. Schooling/Showing: Riders may only show in one division in the same show (either walk/trot or 3- gaited) with the exception of the Walk Trot/Jog all ages division. 3-gaited riders may school horses in the walk/trot classes. Schooling will be allowed in horsemanship/equitation classes if time allows. Schooling riders must still dress appropriately for a show.
12. Rail classes: If over 16 riders the class will be split and judged separately.
13. Pattern Classes: Horsemanship and Equitation will have a pattern at each show. Rail work in these classes will be at the discretion of the judge. Hunter Hack will have a pattern at each class and rail work will be held after each competitor has completed the pattern. Rail work may be forgone if temperature/time prohibits.

Any exhibitor that shows in the ranch confirmation class will have their points counted towards the daily and year end high point Ranch horse division
22. Outside arenas: Riders must walk their horses at all times when outside the arenas.
23. Bleachers/Announcers Stand: No horses allowed in the bleacher area or around the announcer's stand.

27. Walk/Trot Champion & Reserve: Riders who won either champion or reserve in the walk/trot division for the preceding year will move up to the 3-gaited division the next year. They will not be allowed to show walk/trot again.
28. It is the expectation of SSC and show management that good sportsmanship be exercised at all times. Interrupting the judge during a class is not acceptable. This pertains to exhibitors, coaches and trainers. All questions concerning patterns should be addressed prior to the start of a class with the ring steward. In the event that you have questions for a judge please wait until a break or the end of the show.
