Volume 37, No. 9

September 2021

President's Pen

Jane DeStefano

Hello Everyone,

I hope all of you are doing well.

Reminder: We meet on Tuesday, September 7, 2021 because Labor Day is Monday.

Mask Update: I checked with the church today to see if they have had any policy changes regarding masks. The answer is no, they are not requiring masks. While you are not mandated to wear a mask, make your choice based on your comfort level and health history. If you are ill, please stay home. We will continue to set tables up providing social distancing.

Please continue to sell raffle tickets as our drawing is set for November during our auction. Our goal is $4000. Remember we need this to support our programs.

Many thanks to all of you for supporting your Guild! See you in September...JanieD

Hospitality

Be ready to enjoy "Breakfast for Supper" at our September meeting.

Thank you to:

Donation Quilt 2021

November 1st is quickly approaching. That's the day we'll draw the winning ticket for our beautiful donation quilt.

We have several members who have not picked up their tickets. If you have not, please do so at our next guild meeting or contact me, Becky Trigg, at 281-838-5937 and I'll help get them to you. We need all members participation to make this a successful fund raiser for our guild.

Minutes of the BAQG August 2021 General Meeting – Kelly Gibson – Secretary

Jane Ott filled in for Janie DeStefano. Jane called the meeting to order at 7:05 pm, welcoming members and guests. Patty Macon reported on recent community service activities. Currently, guild members have completed 39 blankets, 6 fleece blankets, 27 burp cloths, and 37 'heart' pillows. These items will be delivered to recipients soon. Patti continues to collect sewing supplies for the community service sewing box.

Becky Bradley is filling in for Becky Trigg. She reminded members to pick up raffle tickets for the donation quilt if they have not already done so. Hospitality food and beverages have returned to the guild's general meeting. Members were reminded to sign up to bring food and beverages. The guild will have 'Breakfast for Dinner' at the September meeting.

Jan Cobb gave the Treasurer's report in Gloria Hill's absence.

Jane Ott reminded members to see Annette Kuder or Connie Schoefield if they have items for the November auction.

Jane Ott announced Jeannine Cross is the new chair for the mini raffle. Any members who have door prizes for the mini raffle, please pass them on to Jeannine.

Linda Pike displayed a recently finished quilt that will be in the guild's upcoming auction.

Linda Pike provided an update on Sunshine and Shadows. Guild member Tracy Williams recently had a stroke and Sherry Hughes broke her femur.

Cindie Stolz reminded members there is time to sign up for Tana Mueller's August 3 workshop.

The winners for drawing were as follows: Theresa- Guest

Anne Hankamer, Jeannine Cross, Bonnie Cone and Kaye Shelton-Member

Doris Scarborough-Nametag

Special thanks to Tana Mueller for generously donating several prizes for tonight's drawings.

Jane reminded members to turn in completed blocks for the President's quilt.

Break

Jane Ott introduced tonight's guest speaker, Tana Mueller. Tana displayed a number of beautiful quilts in her trunk show. Most of her quilts feature her talents in design, drawing and coloring, as well as beautiful applique work.

Look for Tana Mueller on Facebook and her website to follow her upcoming projects. Meeting adjourned.

President's Quilt

The President's quilt is a way to honor our President Janie DeStefano for her service and guidance in our guild. Small precut block kits were passed out at the June meeting. If you took a block to complete, please turn them into me - Jane Ott- no later than the September meeting so I will have time to assemble the quilt. Thank you so much for your participation.

Special Projects - Patti Macon

A big thank you to all who participated in the Community Service projects night and to those who took projects home to complete and bring back at the August meeting. The results of our efforts included donations of 15 tote bags, 6 fleece blankets, 5 baby blankets and 7 burp pads to the Baytown Police Department Domestic Violence Unit, 15 baby blankets and 10 burp pads to Love Network and 15 baby blankets and 10 burp pads to the Pregnancy Crisis Center.

We are still collecting items for a Community Service Project sewing box for use when working on our projects. If you have any needles, scissors, rotary cutters, blades or rulers you would like to donate, please bring them to the next meeting.

We are in the final planning stage for the upcoming auction and we would love to hear your ideas about how we can make it the most successful auction the guild has ever had.

Who: Baytown Area Quilt Guild

What: Fundraising auction both live and silent, to benefit our community service and outreach Programs

Where: St. Marks United Methodist Church
3811 N. Main, Baytown, TX 77521

When: Monday, November 1, 2021 at 7PM

Mark your calendars and feel free to invite others to come to the auction. It is not a member only event.

Please bring your donations for the auction to the September meeting as we are beginning to finalize set up, brochure, bid sheets, etc.

If you have any questions regarding items you have for the auction, please do not hesitate to contact us.

If you are looking for FALL projects, we have several options for you. We have several kits using Fig Tree's Pumpkins & Blossoms line. We also have kits available from the popular line from them last year kitted up in Hocus Pocus with the orange border included in the kit.

Boo-lander is ready to go if you want something with a little more of a Halloween feel. It finishes 77x77.

We also have several kits available of our Midnight Frankenmuth. It's really a fun quilt.

We are working up a new fall colored quilt that was inspired by a barn quilt that I bought while on the road. We are working on that, come by the shop to see SEW many options to either add to your current project or need something new to work on.
