SS. Peter & Paul Ukrainian Orthodox Church

We invite you to a celebration of the Resurrection of Christ each week.

Thirteenth Sunday After Pentecost.

Commemoration of the Miracle of the Archangel
Michael at Colossae (Chonae).

Martyrs Eudoxius, Zeno, Macarius. Martyrs Romulus and Others. Hieromartyr Cyril, bishop of Gortyna.
Ven Archipus of Hierapolis, Ven David.

Epistle: 1Cor 15:13-24; Gospel: Mt 21:33-42

Epistle: Heb 2:2-10; Gospel: Lk 10:16-21 (Archangel)

Troparion - Tone 4

When the women disciples of the Lord learned from the angel the joyous message of Your Resurrection,

they cast away the ancestral curse
and elatedly told the apostles:

“Death is overthrown!

Christ God is risen,//

granting the world great mercy!”

Troparion - Tone 4 (Archangel)

Michael, commander of the heavenly hosts, / we who are unworthy beseech you, / by your prayers encompass us beneath the wings of your immaterial glory, / and faithfully preserve us who fall down and cry out to you: / “Deliver us from all harm, for you are the commander of the powers on high!”

Troparion (Sts Peter & Paul) - Tone 4

O first-enthroned of the Apostles,
and teachers of the universe:
entreat the Master of all to grant peace to the world,//
and to our souls great mercy!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

Kontakion – Tone 4

My Savior and Redeemer
as God rose from the tomb and delivered the earth-born from their chains.
He has shattered the gates of hell,
and as Master,//
He has risen on the third day!

Kontakion – Tone 2 (Archangel)

Michael, commander of God's armies / and minister of the divine glory, / prince of the bodiless angels / and guide of mankind, / ask for what is good for us, and for great mercy, / as supreme commander of the Bodiless Hosts.

Now and even and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Kontakion (Sts Peter & Paul) - Tone 2

O Lord, You have taken up to eternal rest and to the enjoyment of Your blessings the two divinely inspired preachers, the leaders of the Apostles, for You have accepted their labors and deaths as a sweet-smelling sacrifice,// for You alone know what lies in the hearts of men.

Prokimen (Resurrection) - Tone 4

How marvelous are Your works, o Lord. In wisdom You have made them all.

Verse: Bless the Lord, my soul. O Lord my God, You are very great.

The Reading is from the First Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 16:13-24

Brethren, Watch, stand fast in the faith, be brave, be strong. Let all that you do be done with love. I urge you, brethren – you know the household of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have devoted themselves to the ministry of the saints – that you also submit to such, and to everyone who works and labors with us. I am glad about the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus, for what was lacking on your part they supplied. For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge such men. The churches of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you heartily in the Lord, with the church that is in their house. All the brethren greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. The salutation with my own hand – Paul’s. If anyone does not love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be accursed. O Lord, come! The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

Alleluia and Verses Tone 4

Bend Your bow and proceed prosperously, and reign because of truth, meekness and righteousness.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

You have loved righteousness and hated iniquity.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

The reading is from the Gospel according to St. Matthew 21:33-42

Hear another parable: There was a certain landowner who planted a vineyard and set a hedge around it, dug a winepress in it and built a tower. And he leased it to vinedressers and went into a far country. Now when vintage-time drew near, he sent his servants to the vinedressers, that they might receive its fruit. And the vinedressers took his servants, beat one, killed one, and stoned another. Again he sent other servants, more than the first, and they did likewise to them. Then last of all he sent his son to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’ But when the vinedressers saw the son, they said among themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and seize his inheritance.’ So they took him and cast him out of the vineyard and killed him. Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those vinedressers?” They said to Him, “He will destroy those wicked men miserably, and lease his vineyard to other vinedressers who will render to him the fruits in their seasons.” Jesus said to them, “Have you never read in the Scriptures: ‘The stone which the builders rejected Has become the chief cornerstone. This was the LORD’s doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes’?

Communion Verses

Receive the body of Christ, taste the Fountain of Immortality. (Ps. 148:1)

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Commemoration of the Miracle of the Archangel Michael at Colossae

In Phrygia, not far from the city of Hieropolis, in a place called Cheretopos, there was a church named for the Archangel Michael, built over a miraculous spring.

This church was built by a certain inhabitant of the city of Laodicia in gratitude to God for healing his mute daughter. The holy Chief Commander Michael appeared to this man in a dream and revealed to him that his daughter would receive the gift of speech after drinking from the water of the spring. The girl actually did receive healing and began to speak. After this miracle, the father and his daughter and all their family were baptized. In fervent gratitude, the father built the church in honor of the holy Chief Commander Michael. Not only did Christians begin to come to the spring for healing, but also pagans. In so doing, many of the pagans turned from their idols and were converted to the faith in Christ.

At this church of the holy Chief Commander Michael, a certain pious man by the name of Archippus served for sixty years as church custodian. By his preaching and by the example of his saintly life he brought many pagans to faith in Christ. With the general malice of that time towards Christians, and especially against Archippus, the pagans thought to destroy the church in order to prevent people from coming to that holy place of healing, and at the same time kill Archippus.

Toward this end they made a confluence of the Lykokaperos and Kufos Rivers and directed its combined flow against the church. Saint Archippus prayed fervently to the Chief Commander Michael to ward off the danger. Through his prayer the Archangel Michael appeared at the temple, and with a blow of his staff, opened a wide fissure in a rock and commanded the rushing torrents of water to flow into it. The temple remained unharmed. Seeing such an awesome miracle, the pagans fled in terror. Archippus and the Christians gathered in church glorified God and gave thanks to the holy Archangel Michael for the help. The place where the rivers plunged into the fissure received the name “Chonae”, which means “plunging.”

SEPTEMBER 16, 2021

Dear Church School Students & Families,

We hope you have all had a blessed, fun, and safe summer! We are happy to announce that Sts. Peter & Paul Church School will begin on Sunday, September 26, 2021, after Divine Liturgy. We will begin the year with three classes: Pre-K to grade 2, grades 3-6, and grades 7-12. Your teachers have some interesting and fun lessons and activities planned for you!

Our Church School classrooms are being renovated, so we will begin classes in the downstairs of the church hall. We will also begin practice for the St. Nicholas play in early October, so it will be really convenient to already be over at the hall. We will have class downstairs and then go upstairs for a short practice. Snacks will be served and there will be hot coffee for your parents!

We can't wait to see you again!

God bless you!

In Christ's Love,

Your Church School Teachers

Your Prayers, Love and Support are Needed: the Metropolia Center of the Church is Flooded

The joyful path, the memorial path, the path to salvation – the pathway to St. Andrew Ukrainian Orthodox Memorial Church is under water.

Just a few days ago, this path reflected joy – in the unfurling of a 350-meter-long Ukrainian flag in commemoration of the 30th Anniversary of Ukrainian Independence. Just a few days ago, this path reflected prayerful sorrow – in the United States flag being hung at half mast, in mournful remembrance of the U.S. military personnel recently killed in Afghanistan.

Thousands have walked this path to participate in Divine Liturgy, to celebrate life, remember the dead, and rekindle their hope in the future.

Today, this path is under water. The remnants of Hurricane Ida swung through the State of New Jersey leaving flooding and devastation in its wake.

In addition to the flooded roads and damaged signage, several buildings of the Metropolia Center including the Fisher House, Pokrova Sisterhood Hall, St. Andrew Ukrainian Orthodox Memorial Cemetery Maintenance Building, and others, have all suffered severe damage, and many are still under water.

We prayerfully appeal to the parish bodies of administration, the clergy, and the faithful of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of the USA for assistance. The damage is great, and there is much work that will need to be done. We cannot do it without your help.

Please lend us a helping hand in repairing the damage, and keep the Council of Bishops, Consistory staff, and Metropolia Center property in your prayers.
