

Britt Thomas

Britt has worked in the children’s museum industry for more than 20 years and was a member of the leadership team that facilitated the successful merger of Playspace and Exploris to create Marbles in 2007. She has led teams across the organization including Marketing & Sales, Customer Support, People Operations and Guest Engagement. Britt manages the relationship with the Raleigh Chamber and represents Marbles as a member of the board of the Downtown Raleigh Alliance. Prior to working for Playspace, Britt’s career was in banking and physician recruiting. Britt has a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and is a Raleigh native.

Britt has served as a parent representative on the Duke Children's Hospital National Advisory Board. She currently serves on Gabi's Board of Directors, where she provides workforce training, education and other support programs to people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. to help them secure employment, contribute to society and live a purposeful, rewarding life.

Britt is passionate about early childhood education and the long term success of students in Wake County. She hopes that her service on the Project Enlightenment Foundation Board will shed light on ways Marbles and Project Enlightenment can work together to enrich preschool education in our community.

Britt joined the Foundation Board in July of 2023.
