2. The Student

2.4) Please provide any additional comments you would like to convey to the instructor about YOUR performance in this class.

- It's academically and personally challenging, but that's simply how to tasks assigned to us are. Political research should be thought provoking and personally intense.

3. The Professor

3.8) Please provide any additional comments you would like to convey about the professor's teaching:

- One of the best and most compassionate professors at QU!
- Professor Scauso is a very accommodating and intelligent professor. He works hard to understand our thought processes and help us grow but also how to better extract our ideas.
- Professor Scauso is an accessible, intelligent and very understanding professor. In a class dedicated to research and writing, he was constantly willing and encouraging us to meet and discuss our ideas. A great person to instruct a class like this!
- Professor Scauso is an excellent professor, he's thorough and sensitive to all his student's needs. He's well-organized and his lectures are easy to follow, even with the hybrid model.
- Professor Scauso is probably the best professor I've had at Quinnipiac. He is ALWAYS available outside the classroom and is able to cater to the needs of his students.
- The best professor to take this class with, as he made it extremely easy to understand the concepts.

4. Class Materials

4.3) Please provide any additional comments you would like to convey relevant to class materials:

- I think that much of the material taught is often repetitive, so it is difficult to stay engaged.

5. The Course Overall

5.3) Please discuss any and all strengths and weaknesses related to this course:

- Again, Professor Scauso is one, if not the best, professor I've had at Quinnipiac.
- Strengths: Well-structured class, easy to follow. Professor Scauso is always willing to help his students.

  Thank you Professor Scauso!
- The biggest strength is Professor Scauso and his dedication to ensuring that everyone is keeping up with the material,understanding it, and keeping the class engaged. I shudder(as dramatic as that sounds) to imagine how I would have gone through this class with a different professor.
- Very comprehensive overview of both kinds of research, really easy to follow classes, and great discussions and examples with space for students to ask questions.
- Weaknesses: this class is challenging if you have time management issues along with personal cognitive illness that can work as an impediment. But, Professor Scauso works to accommodate and work through those barriers.
