Biography

Richard & Jan Lauletta

Over twenty five years ago, God began to prepare Richard and Jan Lauletta for a unique healing ministry. They conducted small group Bible studies and home groups discipling the Body of Christ.

In 2002, they received training to pray for the sick and began to minister in Healing Rooms in San Diego. God called them to help launch Healing Rooms in San Clemente and Sun City.

In 2010, Richard and Jan opened God's Grace Healing Rooms in Temecula. Through a prayer team of forty members that represent more than a dozen churches in the Temecula Valley, God is performing miracles and restoring lives to wholeness.

They also minister weekly in a women's prison called Puerta La Cruz Correction's Camp in Warner Springs.

Richard and Jan Lauletta have been married for 51 years and raised six children. They have six grandchildren that range in ages from 12 to 21.
