LESSONS IN HISTORY

We regret that we will not be able to include a lesson in history in this issue. As you know, we attended the spring camp in West Virginia and it was a howling success. However, several of us returned with the worst cases of flu that have been experienced in many years. It was a kind that persisted and when we returned to nearly normal, it broke out again. Anyway, we are late with this issue. It will contain only six pages for which we apologize. Getting into the dry Southwestern air and getting some physical exercise helped speed the recovery and we are grateful. God willing, we will continue the lessons in history with the next issue. Thank you for understanding.

The Mideast - A Continuation

The war with Iraq is over and it appears on the surface that all of us analysts have egg on our faces! We have read dozens of newsletters, magazines and newspaper reports on the war with Iraq and not one of them accurately predicted the outcome. This fact in itself is disturbing but it reflects the extremely volatile turmoil that is wrenching the entire world.

Perhaps Joseph Sobran, the noted syndicated columnist stated it best when he said, "Well, I was wrong: The war with Iraq ended swiftly and with few American casualties-fewer than 100 reported so far. And suddenly George Bush is more popular than Ronald Reagan ever was. But the very ease of the U.S. victory only accentuates the primary doubt: What sort of threat did Saddam Hussein pose in the first place?"

The "war" (it should not be called a real war) was nothing but a trumped-up conflict by the Plutocratic, International Banker West to bring in their version of "the" New-World Order. It brings into clear focus the part that the United Nations plays in the development of the Plutocrats' concept of world dominance.

The books by Antony Sutton titled Wall Street and the Bolshevik Revolution, Wall Street and FDR and Wall Street and the Rise of Hitler clearly show the Plutocrats' intent for their world order using the United Nations.

There is no question but what their intentions were that Communist Russia would fall at the right time and the dialectics of the two superpowers would end with the synthesis being that of the New World Order.

This nicely arranged little war with Iraq was to show how well the United Nations would work in their New World Order using the high-tech police force of the United States. What spoiled it for the Plutocrats and their lackeys here in the United States?

Communism in Russia has fallen, or nearly so, but the Russian Bear did not. When the Plutocrats pulled out the support of the Communist system in Russia they were confident that the U.S.S.R. would disintegrate. It didn't happen exactly that way. It is true, Russia is in trouble and severe changes in their system are obvious.

The same power that created the Bolshevik system and then funded it for these many years also undoubtedly created and funded the demonstrations and demands for independence within the individual countries in the Soviet Union. Their intentions are for the Soviet system to fall by means of a revolution.

But the Soviet military has gathered together in an even tighter circle. Gorbachev does not want a revolution nor does Yeltsin. Both of these leaders are striving for a similar system of loosely Federated Republics called the Volodin Plan.

Money was needed for the military to prevent a revolution. The Kremlin obtained that money by calling in the Rubles from the people of Russia and reissuing the money at a lower exchange rate. It is contemplated that our government will do this same thing in the near future and it has been reported that the new money has already been printed. This is an age-old but very effective trick whenever a government is broke and needs money in a big hurry. (Our government did a very similar thing in 1964 when they called in the silver coins and exchanged them for junk coins.)

The money was obtained to consolidate the Russian military and this enabled them to put down the unrest in the Balkans and elsewhere and also to maintain their world posture. The Russian people have always been noted for their intense grit and determination in times of adversity.

It has been suggested that an ultimatum was given to Bush and the Plutocrats by Gorbachev to call off the invasion of Iraq or Russia would attack with nuclear weapons. It was just 24 hours before Bush ordered a cease fire in the invasion of Iraq that Gorbachev stated that the Mideast conflict was a "powder keg that can blow up the entire world."

What irony! The military machine that the Plutocrats built and paid for wouldn't disband on command but rather stood in the way of Bush's much touted New World Order!

There is more to the puzzle! Was Saddam Hussein a paid "pawn in the game" just like Hitler, Stalin and all the rest? For example, where is the 12-13 billion dollars in gold bullion that Hussein extracted from the Kuwait banks? Does he personally get to keep that gold as his personal reward?

There is no question but what President Bush set up the Shiites in Southern Iraq and the Kurds in Northern Iraq for the bloodbath that followed the ceasefire. He adamantly denies this but then, the Administration also denied that April Glaspie and Assistant Secretary of State Kelly set up the attack of Kuwait by Hussein.

Why did Bush allow that bloodbath? Why didn't he immediately put a stop to it? Those same "high-tech" capabilities that were so successfully used just a few days before could have stopped the Iraqi attack helicopters as well as the tanks and the artillery. His argument that he didn't want to risk American lives is not credible. He didn't mind it just a few days before!

No, the answer is much deeper and again, Hussein is most probably the paid "pawn in the game." We know who the Shiites are. We know that this sect of Moslems represents the fundamentalism of the Moslem people. The Shiites would be the backbone of any Islamic Jihad.

But who are the Kurds? From ancient times, they have made up the people of the territory of Kurdistan. These people are fiercely independent and demand freedom and liberty, even to the degree of independence within the various clans of Kurdistan. In this independence and liberty they are similar to the various Tartans of the highlands of Scotland.

Kurdistan does not exist now as a separate country but the people extend from Northern Iraq, into Eastern Turkey, Northwestern Iran and Armenia. Although the Kurds are now of somewhat mixed heritage, they are fiercely proud of their blood. Modern historians and anthropologists, who have attended the "approved" history courses, clearly state that the Kurds have an extensive "Aryan" background. We now know those "history" courses to be brainwashing.

In the second chapter of the Book of Hosea, God very clearly divorces the Northern Kingdom of Israel, the ten Northern tribes. Then, in 2 Kings 17:6 and 18 we read this, "In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes...Therefore the Lord was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight; there was none left but the tribe of Judah only."

By looking at any decent Biblical map, one can readily see that Kurdistan is the same area that Hosea describes. Extensive additional archaeological and historical data proves that the majority of those ten northern tribes later went North over the Caucasus mountains and also around the Black Sea into Crimea and then North and West into Europe.

But it is obvious that some of them would have stayed. As you look at the Kurds in their horrible plight in the mountains of Turkey and Iran you can see in many of their faces, the same bloodlines as we of Northern European stock. Many have blond or red hair, blue eyes, longer faces with longer noses and a fair complexion. Of course, many of them have by now mixed with people with darker features because that is a common practice in that area of the world.

However, we have another reason why an attempt was made to destroy the Kurds. History shows that in another time and in another Holy War, it was the Kurds who provided the Moslem world with Saladin, that famous warrior who led the Moslems in the defeat of the Christian Crusaders. One must be left pondering the thought that some of the same blood probably flowed through the veins of both King Richard the Lion Hearted and Saladin, the Moslem chief who rallied the Moslem world into a viable fighting force. The Kurds are the type of people who could once again provide the leader.

But now, back to the current situation. It was Russia, as weak economically as she is, that caused Bush to order the cease fire. The initial response was euphoric among the people back home in America. Bush's popularity was at an all-time high. But he made another terrible blunder when he initially refused to enter into the plight of the Kurds. Likewise, his popularity immediately took a nose dive. We Americans are so fickle!

In retaliation against Russia, Secretary of Defense Cheney stated that the United States was reconsidering the program for our military to reduce its strength in view of the potential that Russia would be taken over by the "hard-liners."

He was referring, in part, to the Russian military intervention in the demonstrations and strikes within Russia. But just weeks before that both Bush and Baker made it clear that they approved of Gorbachev's use of force to put down dissent. What is meant by this contradiction is that the Plutocrats approve of the "hard-line" approach only as long as it is in support of the The One-World government.

The Christian patriot community should seriously take note of this concept. The same hard-line approach has been and will continue to be used to whatever degree is deemed necessary to control dissent within our country. This is the same Federalist versus Republican debate that existed at the very beginning of our country. The more things change, the more they remain the same!

President Bush and his advisors were double-crossed by Russia. The Anglophile, Plutocratic International Bankers were totally confident that the war with Iraq would usher in their world control with Russia subservient to them.

The Israeli Connection. In the July-August 1990 issue of this Intelligence Newsletter, we described the battle between two of the three major contenders for world control. That battle was between the Anglophile Plutocrat International Bankers and the Zionists with their concept of colonial rule through the multi-national corporations. This battle continues and the war with Iraq played a major part in the contest.

Even though it was for the wrong reasons, President Bush can be given considerable credit for telling Israel to stay out of it. The evidence is mounting daily that Bush and his advisors are opposed to the concept of Zionist Israel and its inordinant control over Congress and the American people.

This would be highly commendable if it were for the reason of a Christian America first but that is not the reason. They are only jockeying for position of totalitarian control of the world.

They realized that, since they had to order a cease-fire in their effort to destroy Iraq because of the threat of a world conflagration from Russia, perhaps Saddam Hussein could be of additional value to them. Perhaps they could use him to help control the Mideast as a part of their New-World Order.

Their reasoning is that Hussein's Iraq could still be a buffer against the Shiite Islamic fundamentalists. Bush and the Anglophiles realize that the Islamic Jihad is a very serious threat because it is a major player in the Axis Power's concept of world dominion. The Axis Powers can be described as a coalition of Russia, the Islamic people and eventually Germany and Japan. The Vatican will be supportive of this coalition. This Axis coalition is being formed because of the mutual hate for Zionism.

Further, the Palestinians have been put on notice that the plight of the Kurds could also very easily be their own. All three aspirants for world dominion (the Anglophiles, the Zionists and the Axis Powers) are playing hard-ball as the entire world is bracing for World War III.

As improbable as it may seem, the little sandbox state of Israel is no longer the fair-haired boy on the block. The Bush Administration apparently has very little concern for what the Israeli government thinks or wants in the Mideast. He is trying to curtail the tremendous power that the Zionists have over Congress.

It also appears that, with the exception of the extreme Zionist zealots, the rank-and-file Zionists are crawling back into the woodwork to come out and fight another day.

According to the New American View, the Zionists within the State Department have changed their tune with respect to Israel. These Jews are no longer stating that Israel can do no wrong and the problems in the Mideast can solely be blamed on the Arabs and the Palestinians. The Zionists within the Bush Administration, according to Eric Roseman of the Jewish Institute for National Security Affairs, are now admitting that Israel is as much at fault in the Mideast as the Palestinians and other Arabs.

Who are the Zionists within the Administration who have deserted their cause, according to Roseman? They are: Lawrence Eagleburger, Deputy Secretary of State; Dennis Ross, Director of Policy Planning; Aaron David Miller, one of the Policy Planning staff; Daniel Kurtzer, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Near East Affairs; Paul Wolfowitz, Under Secretary of Defense for Policy- Defence Dept.; and Richard Haass, Director of Middle East Affairs, National Security Council staff. One might suspect that these men are looking over their shoulders constantly!

But now the zealot Zionists are fighting back! They will continue to dig up all of the dirt they can within the administration and air the dirty laundry, using the totally controlled news media. The current example is the expose of the President's Chief of Staff Sununu using Air Force jet aircraft for so-called personal business. All presidents and their staff use official transportation for nearly all of their affairs. Even when lower rank Administration personnel go to lunch with guests, they use an extensive group of people and equipment for security, transportation, communication and other support--all of this at taxpayer's expense. Surely the Chief-of-Staff warrants adequate security, communication and privacy. No, the current news media expose of Sununu's use of official jets is muckraking in retaliation for the Administration's stand on Israel. This shows the inordinant power of the Zionists in the United States. The current disclosure of the prearranged deals made between Reagan's Administration and Iran during the hostage crisis is another example of old fashioned muckraking on the part of the Zionists to discredit the Bush Administration. We all should agree that any underhanded dirty politics that occurred during the hostage crisis should be exposed but why has the media waited until now to make the disclosure?

A very interesting and revealing program was aired on CNN recently. In a program titled "Special Assignment" an extremely harsh indictment was rendered against Zionist Israel and their total control of Congress, the media, the economy and the thought processes of the United States. The moderator interviewed ex- Senator Charles Percy of Illinois, who was dumped in an election, after many years of service because he didn't totally submit to Zionist demands.

The entire program was a disclosure of the power of the Zionist lobby, not only in Washington but throughout the nation. As the program progressed it became obvious that it was another example of the war that has now surfaced between the Anglophile Plutocrats and the Zionists.

The interview with Charles Percy immediately brought to mind the book written by ex-Congressman Paul Findley titled They Dare To Speak Out. As one reviews Findley's book, the significant number of Anglofile East coast establishment and Rhodes Scholar Congressmen and Senators who were forced out of office by the Zionist power comes into focus. Charles Percy, J. William Fulbright, Adlai Stevenson III, and George Ball, to name a few, are revealed as those who lost their positions because they did or said something the Zionists disliked. Apparently the two major contenders for world power have quietly fought each other for some time.

The arrogance and dreams of grandeur of the Zionists is astounding. But this arrogance may, in part, be their downfall. The internationally acclaimed Japanese analyst and writer Masami Uno has disclosed in the Geo Magazine that the Israelis have issued a new coin on which is what appears to be a map of the Mideast. The outline on the coin shows an expanded Israel, which includes Jordan, Lebanon, the Southern half of Syria, The Southwestern half of Iraq and the Northeastern third of Saudi Arabia!

The first thought that would come to mind, what with the total subservience of the United States to the wants of Israel, is that Bush went to war with Iraq and hinted that Iraq might be carved up and given to its neighbors in order to fulfill the Zionists' dreams of "Greater Israel."

However, when the knowledge that there indeed is a conflict between the old Anglophile, Bank of England Plutocrats and the Zionist system of world colonialism as described in our July-August 1990 issue of the Intelligence Newsletter, other possibilities must be considered.

President Bush is currently the world's premier spokesman for the Anglophile group. His current actions with respect to Israel and the Zionist lobby in Washington suggests that he may have gone into the Mideast to CIRCUMVENT the Zionist's plans for taking over the Mideast as shown on the coin (and undoubtedly other sources).

To add credence to this analysis, he has openly shown that Saudi Arabia is to receive a tremendous increase in armaments from the United States. Actually, the consortium of nations that was supportive in the war against Iraq were mainly those who would have been losers if the Zionists were actually to realize their goals.

We must apologize for writing what appears to be somewhat conflicting analyses from one issue to the next. There are so many mixed signals being presented from the many outlets available that it is extremely difficult to read them with total accuracy. We are truly living in the most exciting times in recorded history as this era comes to a climax and close.

The highly controlled news media in America will attempt to create a total blackout of the following information. Again, according to the New American View for April 15, 1991, a prominent economist, a sympathetic Jew, states that "Israel's economy-a mishmash of socialist welfare, bloated bureaucracy, armed military camp, religious fanaticism and Zionist dreams-is slowly sputtering to a stall. Under present conditions, it's only a matter of time until it collapses." He says that their problems are largely of their own making. Their most recent mistake which will likely break the back of their economy "and shatter the Zionist vision" is the current huge immigration of Soviet Jews.

He says that in order for Israel to continue to exist "The U.S. will have to at least double its aid to Israel, from $3 billion to $6 billion or more annually. This is assuming that American Jewry can come up with another billion or so a year on a regular basis, and that the Europeans or perhaps the Japanese can provide still another billion. Israel is not capable of sustaining its current standard of living without a constant infusion of foreign funds."

"It does not have the natural capacity, regardless of what the Zionist dreamers believe, to become a modern industrial nation. It is not likely to become the new Silicon Valley that the Space Age Zionists dream of, but it could become another Death Valley if the Israelis do not accept reality. The Soviet Jewish exodus is Israel's last hurrah. It will be all downhill after this. Eventually, Israel will be just another over- populated, resource-poor, Middle Eastern country. But it will continue to survive as an anomaly in the region-with U.S. aid."

To further complicate the problem, there is a 12 percent unemployment rate which is expected to rise to 15 or 16 percent within the year. This is the employment situation but at the same time the government has to import workers to build the houses for the newly arrived Soviet Jews because neither the native Israeli Jews nor the Soviet Jews have any desire to engage in hard physical labor!

By the admission of their own people, the Israelis are parasites, pure and simple. A parasite always kills its host and that apparently is happening now. It is for this reason that we can consider the state of Israel to be the "loose cannon on deck." It will be they who could turn the Mideast conflicts into World War III.

Does all of this conjure thoughts of doom and gloom? It shouldn't. It must not. We should now be entering into thoughts of thankfulness. We should now pay attention to the words of Jesus in Luke 21:28, "And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh."

The World Wide Spiritual Renewal

Surely the would-be world dictators are cognizant of a phenomena that is common among peoples all over the world. Nearly all of the various races of people on earth, Adamic and non- Adamic alike, are looking for what is currently termed self- determination. In the days of the golden years of Christianity in the United States it was called Manifest Destiny.

The world's news media is constantly revealing uprisings, acts of civil disobedience, acts of terrorism (a very effective and inexpensive form of warfare), civil wars and revolutions. All over the globe, from Africa to the Far East, from the Arctic Circle in Russia to the Cape of Good Hope and Cape Horn, we read of and see on television the peoples of earth turning inwards to themselves. They are tired, finished, through with the "One Worlders" trying to make them over in their own image.

Most of them may never have read the lesson to be found in Genesis 11 starting in verse one, "And the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech. And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there."

"And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them throughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar. And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth. And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded."

"And the Lord said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do; and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do. Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech. So the Lord scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city. Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the Lord scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth."

This lesson is a Universal Law and it applies to all of the peoples of the earth. We cannot change it and God will not permit anyone, no matter who it is, to build a one world order based on any system except the Laws of God. It didn't happen at the tower of Babel or the ancient city of Babylon. The world-wide "city" of Mystery Babylon has been built, or nearly so, but it will not last.

The peoples of the world know that they have been put in bondage by one, or more, of the three aspirants for world government and they are demanding to be released. They realize that they have lost their customs, mores, ethnicity, self-esteem, and their spirituality.

As they go into combat through acts of terrorism, civil disobedience, revolution or civil war to recover their self- determination, the three aspirants for world power see the dissidents through different colored glasses. Their respective news media belch out the proper hate literature condemning the opposition and all-the-while praising with self-righteousness their own brand of totalitarian government.

Within the United States, the Celto-Saxon Christian is finally beginning to awaken to the feeling deep within, that is derived from his forefathers, that he, too, has a right to self-determination. The heartbeat of the Christian patriot is becoming louder and faster, as is the case with any reformation that is spiritual.

In Ephesians 6:12 we read, "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." The Christian patriot rejects the Judeo-Christian teaching described in this verse. The Christian patriot does not have an argument against the other peoples of the world. He fights against the totalatarianism of the Plutocratic International Banker, Socialism, Communism, Zionism or anyone else who wants a "New World Order." He sees all of these as principalities, powers, rulers of darkness and spiritual wickedness.

He understands what the Apostle Paul meant when he said "Put on the whole armour of God" and he is seeking the truth. He is seeking the breastplate of the righteousness of Melchisedec and not the self-righteousness of "it's just between me and my God." The Christian patriot's feet are shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace but he also understands the same Apostle Paul's admonition found in Galatians 5:1, "Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage."

The Christian patriot reads the words of Jesus as well as those of all of the Apostles. He reads with understanding the words of our Saviour in Matthew 10:34-38, "Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword. For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law. And a man's foes shall be they of his own household. He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me."

Taking up the cross in this passage means being willing to die for Christ and Christianity and for the freedom and liberty that our Christian forefathers gave us when they removed us from bondage. Yes, the Christian patriot is at variance with all and everyone who is attempting to place us under the heel of totalatarianism in any form. THE CHRISTIAN PATRIOT HAS A "SWORD" AND HE INTENDS TO KEEP IT!

As we begin to understand in a more comprehensive manner the many facets of the totalitarian systems that have destroyed our once beloved Christian system of life in the United States, we search for the solutions. The leaders within the various branches of the loosely federated but very extensive Christian patriot movement seek the contingencies to thwart the malignant expansion of totalitarian rule.

As the oppressors who seek their utopia become more bold in their militancy, the modern patriot remembers another era in our country when our people were under the heel of the same class of tyrants.

"When in the course of human events....Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed.

But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism....The history of the present King of Great Britain (1776) is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world."

"He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance...He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people..."

"He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary Powers...He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries..."

"He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance. He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies without the Consent of our legislature. He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil power."

"He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation: For Quartering large bodies of armed troops among us: For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States: For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world: For imposing Taxes on us without our consent: For depriving us in many cases of the benefits of Trial by Jury: For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offenses: For abolishing the free System of English Laws...(replacing common law with admiralty law-ed.): For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Government:...."

As you read these excerpts from Thomas Jefferson's writing of the Declaration of Independence, it becomes obvious that we are pretty much right back where we started. All of the points that Jefferson made, and many more, have been done to us by a government gone awry.

We read with sorrow the point that Jefferson made when he wrote, "In every stage of these Suppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms. Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be a ruler of a free people."

As each day passes, more and more gentle, peace loving Christians are joining hands and hearts to make right these terrible wrongs that are being done to institute a one-world government. Those tyrants within the conspiracy who have emasculated the Judeo-Christian churches with their symbiotic relationships with the government need to realize that by far the biggest majority of true Christians don't go to those churches. Those true Christians who have joined hands and hearts in this struggle have "mutually pledge(d) to each other our Lives, our Fortunes, and our sacred Honor."
