

INTRODUCING ERIC BROGLE A new member of the InKorr Team!

Date: 14/03/2018

InKorr is please to introduce Eric to our clients and partners. He is a very experienced engineer with nearly 40 years of experience in various types of chemical plants.

Eric Brogle is an Engineer who is passionate about providing products and solutions to the manufacturing industry. After spending many years in manufacturing in an operational management role he knows the value of suppliers that can provide good, cost effective solutions.

Eric is now a provider of solutions in the heat transfer and corrosion mitigation arena dealing with the supply and service of heat exchangers, corrosion resistant valves, piping and components.

Eric holds a BSc. In Mechanical Engineering, a Graduate Diploma in Business and fire assaying qualifications.

Eric will be responsible for supporting all InKorr clients in Western Australia and can be contacted at 0447604480.