~Letter from the Baroness~

Greetings Windhaven!

I think that spring may have finally arrived. After the wet, dreary April we had I am looking forward to more sunny days to help things grow.

HE Grimmund and I attended the Coronation of Konrad and Aibhilin last month. Domestic responsibilities have kept us homebound the rest of the month.

The Barony is busily preparing for Crown Tournament to be held in Windhaven the weekend of May 13 in Fond du Lac. An event of this size requires the efforts of all members of the Barony to properly entertain our guests. Many calls have gone out for volunteers and answers have been made. Have you offered your services in an area of need yet? If not, please contact Lady Aesa to find out where help is still needed.

Armored combat practice heads outdoors for the summer starting May 7. Join us for fighting and socializing at Memorial Park in Appleton at noon. Take the Ballard Rd entrance. We meet near the archery range as shown on the map -
