In order that my child may obtain the benefits of the home and away games, practices and all other events that Ballard Christian School will participate in for athletic purposes during the current (Year) season. I hereby release Ballard Christian School's agents, assigns, teachers, principals, coaches, pastors, bus drivers, or other persons working for the benefit, or with BCS, from any liability whatsoever concerning the care, control and custody of my child. I hereby relinquish to BCS permission to care for my child in whatever manner necessary, which includes discipline, medical treatment, and/or any other possible needs that may arise during the course of all athletic events. I hereby further covenant to not sue any of the above mentioned individuals, corp., etc., for any incidents which may arise from any of the above mentioned athletic events, which I allow my child to participate in for his/her benefit. I understand and approve of said child being transported in a bus, van, Car, pick-up or other means by an employee, or other school approved driver. I understand that said driver may not have a commercial driver's license and that the vehicle used for transportation may not be one that has been equipped in such manner as a school bus should be. I understand that my child must be covered by hospitalization insurance and have a physical exam before participating in athletic events at BCS.
