Metalworkers' Successful Strike in the Shipyards for Collective Contracts

The Metalworkers' and Shipbuilding Workers' Union held a successful strike on Wednesday, March 1st, demanding the signing of Collective Contract for the Shipbuilders.

The Strike reached 100% participation of the more than 1000 workers in the Shipbuilding Zone of Perama, Piraeus. The success of the strike is a great step for the escalation of the struggle for the reinstatement of the Collective Contracts. The signing of Collective Contract for the Shipbuilders is a key fight, for the reinstatement of the Collective Contracts in the whole sector of Metalworkers of Greece.

Important moment of the strike was the speech of Ozkan Atar, General Secretary of Birlesik Metal Is Union from Turkey, who transferred the experience of their struggle for Collective Contracts and expressed his solidarity with the metalworkers of Greece.
