CORONADO HILLS/CREEKSIDE NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATION
to ensure the safety of residents—to preserve the integrity of the neighborhood—to increase the value of homeowner property

Please Take Down Political Signs

Our deed restrictions allow political signs for the period of the campaign. Once elections are over, it is time to remove the signs and recycle them.

Our district One representative is Ora Houston. Her email is Ora Houston <Ora@oraatx.com>. She has a city e-mail address which is on the Austin city government link and click on the new city council and you can email her your message.

A small part of our neighborhood is in District Four. Your representative is Gregorio E. "Greg" Casar.

The Physical Address for all council members is: 301 W 2nd St., Austin, 78701.

The mailing address for all council members is P.O. Box 1088, Austin TX 78767.

Ora Houston = phone 512-472-2951
Greg Casar = 512-962-8708

Soon new council members will have staff and there will be a city hall number you may call to talk to them and when you look them up online, there will be names of their assistants and phone numbers to reach them..

Abandoned Cars

We are having a problem with abandoned cars in the neighborhood. APD is working on it. Some of the problem vehicles include:

- 1800 block of Coronado Hills Dr. Honda tagged in November is still there
- motorcycle parked corner of Barcelona and Coronado Hills Drive
- 1700 block of Coronado Hills Dr. Toyota sedan
- 7500 block of Brookhollow has a big GMC truck.

Our neighborhood streets are mostly only 25 feet wide. These abandoned or stored vehicles pose a safety hazard to motorists, walkers, and cyclists. Please call or e-mail officer Scoggins about any vehicle that sits for long periods of time parked on the street. These could be vehicles

Two-Thousand Tree Give Away!

TreeFolks are giving away 2,000 saplings. The public can pick up a Montezuma Cypress or Cherry Laurel. Date and Location in our area for the giveaway is:

10:00 – 11:30 a.m.
February 14, 2015
Buttermilk Park
7497 Blessing Ave.

TreeFolks and partners, Austin Urban Forest Division, Austin Watershed Protection are also looking for VOLUNTEERS to plant small seedlings that will not require irrigation. Volunteers will learn about the site's history and representatives from the program will discuss the importance of urban forest stewardship and riparian planting. They will explain how these plantings will help the waterways of Austin thrive.

Shift is from 9 a.m. to noon, January 17 at Dottie Jordan Park 2803 Loyola Lane;

January 17, Bartholomew Park 5201 Berkman.

Dress appropriately for weather: hat, long pants, closed toe shoes, sunscreen if appropriate, bring along a water bottle.

Sign up at: treefolks.org/volunteer-opportunities.
Additional opportunities are available in February.
