

Boivin, Arlene

Arlene M. Boivin of Ruth and formerly of Buffalo, N.Y., found peace with the Lord on Saturday, Oct. 19, 2002. She began her final journey at home, with family by her side. Arlene enjoyed arts and crafts, bingo, bowling, ceramics, and her Internet friends too numerous to mention. She also enjoyed her grandchildren, movies, music, and grew to love the peacefulness of country living in the thumb area, as she was born and raised a "city girl". She is survived by sister, Theresa Janis and her husband, Eugene, of Cheektowaga, N.Y.; brother, Alphonse Lusiak Jr. of Buffalo, N.Y.; daughters, Cynthia Stellrecht and her husband, Kent, of Getzville, N.Y., Renee Messing and her husband, Philip, of Ruth; son, Brian Boivin of Buffalo, N.Y.; daughter, Denise Walczyk and her husband, Thomas, of Friendsville Tenn.; grandchildren, Shelby and Michael Stellrecht, Lindsay, Chelsea, Alex, Breanne, and Hayley Messing, Sean Boivin, and Eric, Jason, and Regan Walczyk; and other loved family members and her beloved dog, Teddy. Arlene was preceded in death by her husband, Richard L. Boivin; her parents, Alphonse and Josephine Lusiak; twin infant sons and sister-in-law Charlotte Lusiak. Arlene was laid to rest at St. Adalberts Cemetery in Lancaster, N.Y. on Wednesday, Oct. 23, 2002. Her family wishes to thank everyone who remembered her in their prayers and attended her memorial services. They also wish to thank everyone who assisted Arlene during her illness over the past years, especially her doctors and employees of Huron Memorial Hospice, and wish to acknowledge the kindness and thoughtfulness of the employees of Courtney Manor and Donaldson, Inc. Memorials may be made to Huron Memorial Hospice in Bad Axe.
