To Whom It My Concern:

It is with great pleasure that I write to you in recommendation of Tracey Videen. I have worked with Tracey this past year through our Breed Club. I have found her to be an outgoing, exuberant, generous person who is never afraid to take on any task. She is a spontaneous thinker and has gone above and beyond to help bring our club forward.

Tracey is an independent, highly organized, self directed person who is able to jump in on any task and get it done. Our Club prides itself on member participation and Tracey has coordinated an agenda of events, for the club for 2009, to encourage member participation and involvement. She has brought fresh ideas and thoughts to the table every time we have asked.

I would highly recommend Tracey for employment with your organization. She is a team player who excels in her work performance and her direction at task puts her above the crowd with what she is able to provide and complete for a company. She would be a valuable asset to a company.

Best Regards,
