JOHN PRATT REPORTS FROM OTTAWA

The United States and the USSR have agreed to recommend the following principles as the basis for future multilateral negotiations on disarmament and to call upon other states to co-operate on reaching early agreement on general and complete disarmament in a peaceful world in accordance with these principles.

1. The goal of negotiations is to achieve agreement on a program which will insure that -- disarmament is general and complete and war is no longer an instrument for settling international problems and -- such disarmament is accompanied by the establishment of reliable procedures for the maintenance of peace in accordance with the principles of the United Nations Charter.

2. The program for general and complete disarmament shall insure that states will have at their disposal only those non-nuclear armaments, forces, facilities, and establishments as are agreed to be necessary to maintain internal order and protect the personal security of citizens; and that states shall support and provide manpower for the UN peace force.

3. To this end, the program for general and complete disarmament shall contain the necessary provisions, with respect to the military establishment of every nation, for -- Disbanding of armed forces, dismantling of military establishments, including bases, cessation of production of armaments as well as their liquidation or conversion to peaceful uses;

-- Elimination of all stockpiles of nuclear, chemical, bacteriological and other bacteriological and other weapons of mass destruction and cessation of the production of such weapons;

-- Elimination of all means of delivery of weapons of mass destruction;

-- Abolishment of the organizations and institutions designed to organize the military effort of states, cessation of military training, and closing of all military training institutions;

 -- Discontinuance of military expenditures.

4. The disarmament program should be implemented in an agreed sequence, by stages until it is completed, with each measure and stage carried out within specified time limits. Transition to a subsequent stage in the process of disarmament should take place upon a review of the implementation of measures including in the proceeding stage and upon a decision that all such measures have been implemented and verified and that any additional verification arrangements required for measures in the next stage are, when appropriate, ready to operate.

To be continued next week.

LACHINE GENERAL W. A.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Mrs. W. Harkness, president of the Lachine General Hospital Women's Auxiliary told members of the board of administration last week that plans are well in hand for a new drive for members.

The Lachine General Hospital W.A., she said, is the largest and most active group of its kind on the Island of Montreal. Activities of the group are growing and more active members of the group were essential if the standards it has set are to be maintained.

In her report of gifts to the hospital she referred particularly to the radiation protection shield presented to the Lachine General by the 20 Club.

General Motors of Canada makes purchases from suppliers in 450 Canadian communities. Among these purchases are dishcloths (for boring tools) and ball-and-socket table brushes (for cleaning fabrics).

MUNICIPAL GOLF...

DORVAL SHOWS HOW TO OTHER MUNICIPALITIES

Reprinted from Golf and Club News.

"It's a shame that they have to go" is lamented regularly when the subject of Montreal Island's golf courses is discussed. A sigh accompanied by a shug of the shoulders is about all the activity in opposition to the tightening and gradual disappearance of these beautiful green areas. In the name of progress, the harassed house holder as well as the average golfer has learned to accept the crush of civilization.

"Not here!", cried Dorval's mayor, John Pratt, when the Elm Ridge golf club migrated to its site on Ile Bizard, leaving eleven of its lush fairways to housing development.

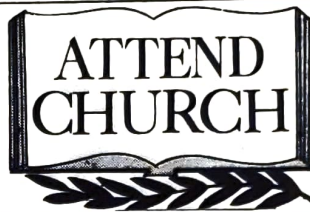

Since the mayor is also the district's Federal Member of Parliament, he saw the possibilities, knew what to do about it, and above all did it. The results are the Dorval Municipal Golf Club.

While the initial steps are important, the organization of a golf course, its operation and financing are no simple matter. With this in mind, these seven northern holes of the former Elm Ridge golf course were turned over to the Dorval Recreational Association. Already operating successfully with three well organized swimming pools under its wing, the D.R.A. gladly took on the monumental task of making the course function.

The high cost of golfing applies equally to operating municipal course, and the D.R.A. was faced with problem number one - finances. Fortunately, city hall was behind the project, and a loan of $24,000, was arranged at regular rates of interest to be paid back over a five year period. The landlord, the Federal Department of Transport, demanded rental of 25% of the gross revenue, for land which might normally

Letters To The Editor

LETTER TO MAYOR FROM
 MINISTER OF TRANSPORT
 Dear John:

Further to my letter of September 7th, 1961, an investigation has been carried out as a result of your request for improvements to the aids to navigation in your riding.

It is agreed that we should do all possible to make our waterways attractive to visitors from the United States, and it has been our opinion that the waterways of Riviere des Pyraies, Riviere des Mille Isles, Lake of Two Mountains and Lake St. Louis were among the best marked in the country for use by small craft. We maintain in these waters a total of 198 buoys of various types ranging from barrels to lighted buoys with a annual maintenance cost in excess of $8000.

We do not feel that at this time an extensive improvement program could be carried out, but if any localized areas are deficient, we will be happy to investigate and make necessary changes or additions.

Yours sincerely,
 Leon Balcer

St Thomas High To Be Inaugurated

The St. Thomas High School of Pointe Claire, which will be officially inaugurated in mid-October, is now entirely completed and ready to admit its 1,100 students.

Finished during the last school year, this institution is the most important of its kind ever established in this province by a Catholic school commission.

Its inauguration will mark another major phase in the field of public education in Quebec, since the school will accept both French and English-speaking Catholic boys and girls.

Located on Ambassador Road, in the very heart of the Town of Pointe Claire, St. Thomas High School already reports the enrolment of pupils from all sections of the western half of the Island of Montreal, this being the evidence of the most important part it is bound to play in the life of these fast-growing suburbs.

St. Thomas High School is not only modern in its architectural design, but also the architectural design, but also through the methods of education it proposes to its pupils.

Consisting of four wings, the school is built around a central building which houses four recreation halls, two gymnasiums, two cafeterias and some special classrooms. Each wing will have its own student population, two being reserved for girls, both French and English-speaking the other two for boys.

In spite of the great number of pupils enrolled, St. Thomas High School will be in the position of giving each group an appropriate teaching, through its 44 regular and 12 special classrooms.

Aside from its domestic arts classes, its gymnasiums and special classrooms, the school has three laboratories, some music rooms and libraries for the exclusive use of students in view of their extracurricular possibilities of learning.

The laboratories are equipped with all the scientific

Neurosurgeon Joins Lachine Staff

Grover C. Furr, president of the board of Management at Lachine General Hospital, has announced that Dr. Harold Elliott, former chief of neurosurgery at the Montreal General Hospital, has joined the hospital staff in a consultant capacity.

Dr. Elliott will be available to see and to treat accident victims with suspected or known head injuries.

The appointments of Dr. Elliott is necessitated by the increasing number of industrial and highway accident victims who attend the hospital's out-patient department.

In a report to the board, Dr. W. G. Dixon, MD, president of the hospital staff, says the emergency department of the hospital has been functioning for several years primarily to administer emergency treatment to patients who either have no doctor or whose doctor is not available.

The use to which this hospital service has been put shows a rapid increase. Last year it averaged 1,000 visits a month. This year it is expected to exceed that figure.

The department, said Dr. Dixon, was not designed as an outdoor clinic but was intended primarily to give first-aid treatment. But there is at all times a certified surgeon on call together with a member of the intern staff.

Dr. Dixon said a high proportion of accident cases, both industrial and on the highways, are taken to the Lachine General sometimes from as far away as Chateauguay, Ste. Anne de Bellevue and beyond.

No patient is refused treatment.

Include in the number of cases treated is a high proportion of traumatic cases following high-speed car collisions. These are often associated with head injuries, some of which have had to be transported to neurosurgical at Montreal hospitals.

This, says Dr. Dixon is not desirable because such patients are often in serious condition where transportation adds to the gravity.

As a result, Dr. Elliott was asked and has accepted the position of consultant, thus obviating the necessity of transporting cases once they are brought to the Lachine General.

Dr. Elliott has a long and brilliant career in neurosurgery with considerable experience in traumatic head wounds arrived at during the war and since. He is, therefore, making his experience available both to the Lachine General Hospital and the community at large.

It will, I feel, be an extremely valuable addition to the services rendered by the hospital, said Dr. Dixon.

DORVAL WOMEN IN CHORAL COMPETITION

Dorval members of Harmony, Inc. who have recently joined this international women's barbershop group as 'adherents' to the Montreal Happy Tones got their first taste of showmanship when they appeared on Channel 12's Carte Blanche last Friday, whereas the original Dorval members were veterans of their last appearance on Country Fair! These previews were in conjunction with Harmony's Second Annual Chorus and Quartette Competitions to be held in the Montreal High School Auditorium on Saturday, October 21st.

Chapters of this organization are scattered from Providence, R.I. to Chicago in the United States, and Canadian members are travelling from as far away as Orillia, Ont. For most of the Americans, it will be their first visit to Montreal, therefore the Happy Tones are sparing no efforts to make the weekend a memorable one.

These women, who enjoy a hobby by which also brings pleasure to others less fortunate than themselves, pay their own expenses for a Convention weekend, and the Chapter which is lucky enough to be named Hostess for Competitions gains nothing but the experience, fun and hard work concomitant with such an undertaking, despite presenting it as a show financed by an admission charge to the public. They must look to friends, and more friends for support!

The Harmony Belles of Providence, R.I. alone are well worth the price of admission. This sixty-voice chorus, and last year's winners, have already made one recording and is a well-balanced, finely disciplined group. This year, their dynamic Director, Margot Lum, will conduct the International Chorus comprising members of every Chapter present, as a special feature of the evening. The show will be kept at a lively pace by CFOX's Gordon Sinclair as M.C. after the Hon. Wm. Hamilton has officially welcomed the visiting choruses to open the show.

This is only a section of the laboratories at the new St. Thomas High School, at Pointe Claire. The school places at the disposal of students in chemistry, physics and biology the most modern instruments and equipment they need to ensure their progress in the field of science.

In the second quarter both teams scored TDs, one by Jeff Thompson of the Giants and one by Geoff Greenshields of the Bombers. The Bombers converted their touchdown, Barry Fielder doing the chores. DORVAL SCOUT AND GUIDE NEWS

Lady Baden Powell, World Chief of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts, is in Canada for a two month visit. She is the widow of Lord Baden Powell, the British hero of Mafeking and the founder of Boy Scouts. On her tour of all the provinces of Canada, Lady Baden Powell will visit as many of the 200,000 Guides and Brownies as possible. On the Lakeshore we will have the privilege of seeing her on Tuesday, October 17th. Mrs. A. Bennett of Beaconsfield, is in charge of arrangements for the two rallies which Lady Baden Powell will attend. The Brownies, about 1,800 strong, and their Guides will meet at John Rennie High School, Pointe Claire, at 5 p.m. Transportation to and from the rally will be, in most cases, by chartered buses. Mrs. O. S. Davidge of Beaurepaire, will lead singing of many songs Brownies have been learning for this special occasion. Mrs. K. Hall of Pointe Claire, is allocating floor space to each division and will direct the traffic into and out of the auditorium. Mrs. G. W. Gibson of Dorval is making signs for each Division and will arrange on the walls of the auditorium the paper flower garlands made by the Brownies at recent Pack meetings. The stage will contain a typical Brownie toastroom beside a "magic pool" and surrounded by "six emblems" -- a fairy, a gnome, an elf and a pixie.

The Guide Rally will be held at MacDonald High School, Ste. Anne de Bellevue. From 1,200 to 1,500

Guides will assemble there at various appointed times. Guides in charge of this rally are Mrs. R. Cote, Mrs. J. Griffiths, Mrs. B. Shipton and Miss M. Henshaw of Dorval, Mrs. E. A. Blaster of Ste. Anne, Mrs. H. Tilson of Pte. Claire and Miss J. Hartnell of Baie D'Urfe. First Class Guides are doing most of the work. They are Carol Grigg, Anne Hubbert, Barbara Sloane and Judy Lamarche of Strathmore, who have prepared a back drop and camp scene for the stage; Carol Candler of Dorval handling the traffic; and Anne Allnut a Ranger of Baie D'Urfe is in charge of the seating plan. She has carefully worked out where each Division will sit and even how many square inches each Guide may occupy. A Guard of Honour will consist of Guides who have earned Gold Cords or All Round Cords. On stage there will be two Guides, one junior and one senior, from each of the 11 Divisions from Dollard and Lasalle Areas. The program will include a demonstration of square dancing and a sing-song led by Miss J. Hartnell, Dominion Music Advisor.

In the evening Lady Baden Powell will have dinner with 70 Land, Sea and Air Rangers from Montreal and the Lakeshore. The Rangers are the senior branch of Guiding for girls over fifteen years of age. Mrs. A.O. Leslie, Chief Ranger Advisor for Quebec Province, will preside at this dinner which will take place at St. Mark's Church, Dorval.

SPEAKING OF BOOKS...

Two books have come across our desk this fortnight which we cannot resist mentioning.

LE HIBOU ET LA POUSSIOUETTE by Francis Steegmuller; Little, Brown & Company (Canada) Ltd., $3.50.

This is a delightful rendition of Edward Lear's immortal "The Owl and the Pussycat". It preserves the story, the metre and the characters of the original and adds a certain French je ne sais quoi, which the jacket blurb calls "warmth" and I call something even warmer. At any rate, it is a must on your list for that daughter beginning French, or for that brother-in-law who enjoyed "A French Mistress". The illustrations are charmingly appropriate to the spirit of the verse, of which we must quote one (tilluminating stanza):

Au chanteur dit la chatte "Noble Sieur a deux pattes,
Voire voix est d'une telle elegance!
Veuillez-vous, chier Hibou, devenir mon epoux?
Mais que faire pour trouver une alliance?"

The Owl and the Pussycat has graduated from the realm of pur whimsy to being a love-poem. Here indeed is a book second only to "Winnie the Pooh" in being a love-poem. Here indeed is a book second only to "Winnie the Pooh" in being a love-poem. Here indeed is a book second only to "Winnie the Pooh" in being a love-poem. WHY ROCK THE BOAT by William Weintraub; Little Brown and Company $3.95

Seldom can we be made to laugh out loud after eleven o'clock at night; this week, we were regularly heard to hoot while reading this book in the only time allotted to us in a very busy schedule. Mr. Weintraub, once a news-paper man in Montreal himself, has written rollicking farce on a cub reporter who repeatedly falls off the ten story building and lands, either on his feet or in bed with the managing editor's wife. Either way, it turns out to be tremendous fun, especially for the reader, for Mr. Weintraub has a fine sense of the ridiculous. We particularly enjoyed the sequence in which the week-end skier, "chickens out" on an un-navigable hill by feigning injury, and Mr. Harry Waldron is the hero-dope in the tradition of Bob Hope and Charles Chaplin. He has, in his own words "such a hollow, clouded brain-box" that he makes the rest of us feel light by comparison. We're quite sure there never was a newspaper quite as "far out" as the "Montreal Daily Witness", but the way in which Harry's scurrilous news stories featuring the Managing Editor written as exonerates, manage to get themselves published is pure Montreal. It could happen here and nowhere else.

STRATFORD ACTORS PREPARE FOR WINTER ASSIGNMENTS

Reading press releases from Stratford on the winter schedules of Stratford actors always makes us wish we could follow the theatre season in at least three cities on two continents. This season's run-down is no exception. Paul Scofield and Jack Creley will appear in New York, in "A Man for All Seasons", Scofield playing Sir Thomas More, and Creley, Cardinal Wolsey. Douglas Rain, Leo Ciceri, John Vernon and Michael Learned will shortly be seen in a CBC-TV production of "The Duchess of Maliff", William Needles will be seen in "Elizabeth the Queen", on TV, before he goes into the production of George McCowan's "The Day of the Dodo". It all sounds to exciting that we wish we belonged to the leisured class who do nothing but read books, listen to music and go to the theatre. Truth to tell, we do get our fair share of these pleasures probably more than most housewives.

LACHINE HIGH REPORTS

The grade eight students were officially initiated into the school on October 4. They were required by the senior pupils to do everything from chanting, school songs to pushing chalk along the halls with their noses. Each new girl sported colourful hair ribbons and pigtails and the boys donned homemade paper hats. Both wore signs announcing, "I am a freshie!" It will be a day long remembered by all.

The soccer and football season is well underway. The Junior's won both their football games, topping MacDonald High 47-0, and John Rennie 12-6. The Senior's however were defeated by Beaconsfield 16-1. In soccer both the Junior and Bantam teams lost their first games. Each sunny afternoon the field is covered with players eagerly practicing for their next games. Thus a successful season is anticipated.

Most of the school clubs are in full swing again this year. The bowling enthusiasts meet every Friday afternoon. Other groups include the Biology and Chess Clubs, the Hi-Y groups and the school paper the Hi-lo Down.

The Girls' Sports are very active with tennis, golf, swimming, and field hockey on at the present time. Linda McCourt and Bev Payson are the tennis champions for 1961-62, and the golf championship was recently won by Linda Cameron. A field hockey match with Hudson High and the Inter-mural Swim Meet on the 29 of November are two events which the girls are looking forward to.

PILOTING COURSE FOR LAKE ST. LOUIS POWER SQUADRON

The annual piloting course of Lake St. Louis Squadron of Canadian Power Squadron got underway recently in its new location at Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club with twenty-five students registering for the fifteen week course.

Greeting the new students, Commander Marry Markowitz pointed out that Lake St. Louis Squadron now has over 100 members and is part of the 4,200 member Canadian Power Squadrons that reaches across Canada.

"There are no paid instructors at Lake St. Louis Squadron courses," the Commander started. "All of our instructors in this initial Piloting course, and in later courses such as Seamanship, Advanced Piloting, Junior Navigation, Engine Maintenance, Sailing, and others, give of their time and talents because of their interest in safer boating through training, the principle behind the Canadian Power Squadrons"

Squadron Training Officer Lt. Commander John Leak then outlined the course of lectures which are to be held every Monday night, at 7:30 at the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club. GOOD AS NEW SHOP RE-OPENS

Lachine General Hospital's Women's Auxiliary has re-opened its "Good As New" shop at 235 - 6th Avenue, Lachine, following the summer vacation.

Mrs. L. Cardinal, shop convenor, asks anyone with anything they intend to discard to give the shop first refusal. Any bric-a-brac, jewelry, or small items for re-sale would be welcomed. While furniture and similar large items are not encouraged, the shop will accept them. Mrs. Cardinal explained that items such as these, however, are bulky and leave little or no room for other items.

Proceeds from the shop go towards helping in the various activities at the Lachine General.

First item of the Fall-Winter season will be a "Fashions in Portrait" presentation and smorgasbord luncheon, organized by the Auxiliary executive. Mrs. E.P. Wright and Mrs. Len Scott are convening the event which is to be held at Summerlea United Church Hall at Arcadia and 5th Avenue, Lachine, on October 4 at 1:00 p.m. lie fallow. This should allay any fears that our government is not a hardhearted business-man.

With a Lakeshore area liberally sprinkled with golfers of both the membership and pay-as-you-play type, it wasn't too difficult a task to pick-up the money necessary to meet the financial obligations, and even in the first year of operation, the club was able to produce a balanced budget. For the current season, the second operation, a budget has been set at the $30,000. mark. The big bites are the Dept. of Transport's quarter, and the repayment of close to $6,000. on the initial loan. Personnel for both course and clubhouse run slightly over the five figure mark, while upkeep of both club and grounds is budgeted at approximately $7,000.

Memberships, set at $85. for family participation, which is strongly encouraged at the municipal level, contributes two thirds of the revenue, with guest-fees and counter sales making up all but $200. This last amount is supplied by the firm which holds the worm concession on the course. More precisely a live-bait company which does its gathering on the fairways of the Dorval Golf Club.

The course itself, although developed and maintained with loving care by the Elm Ridge members, presented one serious problem to the D.R.A. - only seven holes. The organizing committee of Dorothy Dow, Sid B. Thomas, and Keith MacLean can take pride in the fact that they were able to adjust the lay-out to include a new 120 yard second hole, and a new 180 yard eighth, while losing only fifty yards of the original holes.

A community club requires a community effort, and many have contributed to the success of the Dorval Golf Club. Pat Fletcher, professional at the Royal Montreal Golf Club, and a resident of Dorval contributed valuable time and advice in the early stages. Members of chairman Keith MacLean's committee include Mike Escoffery, Des Monks, and John Meronek, while George Spicer is greenskeeper, and Mrs. Bergson manages the club.

Competition is now taking an up-swing among activities with Mrs. B. Wilderspin handling semi-monthly events for the ladies, and an entry of fourteen enrolled for the last P.Q. G.A. junior field day at St. Johns. The first competitive feather was added to the Club's cap. however, when club champion Reg Grigg not only qualified for the Quebec Amateur Championship, but then proceeded to knock off the low qualifier in the first round of match play.

Dorval can puff with pride not only that it supplies its residents, both young and old, with healthful outdoor recreation, but also that it has shown the way to other municipalities that the established golf course doesn't "have t'a go".

"Training in the operation and handling of pleasure boats is the only real way to make the water the safest place on which to spend our free time in summer," Commander Markowitz said. "And training is what the Lake St. Louis Squadron offers boatsmen. All we ask of students is an interest in boating. They don't even have to own a boat to take the Canadian Power Squadron course . . . as long as the interest is there."

A Province of Quebec bursary and a bursary from the VON have enabled "Bert" Hoffman to complete her degree studies in nursing.

"My long anticipated dream is now a reality. I can't tell you how wonderful it is."

Mrs. Hoffman recalled her early days at the Jewish General Hospital.

"We only had the main building then. When I left in '41, the hospital was in the midst of an expansion program and when I came back in '58, I saw so many tremendous improvements, I was deeply impressed. Excepting for the main building I remembered, it has all changed."

The outstanding work of the hospital's Women's Auxiliary and volunteer workers was praised by Mrs. Hoffman. "Their contributions to the hospital, both in financial aid and in working hours, are a tremendous boost."

The Jewish General Hospital, whose training school opened in 1951, attracts nursing students from all over Canada, as well as some from the United States.

Bert Hoffman described the routine students go through before they start training.
