

Sherri Wells

Results oriented professional self-starter with a proven successful development experience with startup and turn around businesses, departments, new products, and nonprofit agencies.

Strategic thinker, internal and external relationship builder, partnership developer, problem solver and entrepreneurial dreamer focused on driving revenue growth through relationships. Exceptional people skills with high EQ intuition to create and maintain critical client relationships and strategic partners.

Strong managerial and leadership skills. Great networker with a passion for connecting individuals so they can grow their respective businesses.

Responsible for raising the funds to bring DaVinci the Genius to the NM Museum of Natural History & Science. Visitors came from every state in the United States and the museum experienced $1.2 million dollars in admission revenue.

Serves on the NM Philharmonic Board and is the Chair of Circle of Red for American Heart Association.

Sherri Wells

#50 These boots were made for walkin