

Laura Leventhal - President

Laura is a South Bay Native with a background in media, creative advertising & strategic partnerships. She currently leads her own consultancy in the nexus of branding, social enterprise & events.

As Director for LA2015 (the Largest sports & humanitarian event in the world in 2015), She had the distinct pleasure of bringing the Special Olympics World Summer Games to the South Bay, while managing communications and events for 80+ Southern California communities. She has worked for CBS Television, and currently production for G'Day USA - Australia's premier public & economic diplomacy program in the United States.