

SPAIN 2015

Barcelona, Madrid, & Costa Blanca Seville & Southern Spain Extension

October 24th – November 1st, 2015

November 1st – 5th, 2015

Join Restoration Journeys in breathtaking Spain!

Our journey will begin in Barcelona, a city that is rich with cultural history and full of life on the Mediterranean coast. Barcelona differs from other Spanish cities having two official languages & cultures, Catalan and Spanish. English is also widely spoken.

Explore and enjoy all that Barcelona has to offer while staying in the center of the city. We will spend time learning about many forms of restoration in Spain, as well as tour the Picasso Museum, marvel at Gaudi's Basilica de la Sagrada Familia, and experience Barcelona's culture along the famous Las Ramblas. You will have time to explore Barcelona on your own; relax on the beach; shop in boutiques; and enjoy not only the wonderful Spanish cuisine, but Catalan as well!

As a group we will travel to the heart of Spain to experience Madrid! You will visit the world famous Prado Museum, admire the Royal Palace, and enjoy a Spanish Dinner and Flamenco show. We will have the opportunity in Madrid to visit the Royal Tapestry Factory (Real Fabrica de Tapices). This factory, founded in 1721, creates tapestries by hand using the loom techniques from the 18th century and rugs in the Turkish and Spanish knot techniques. They also restore and preserve these works in their specialized workshop that enables them to use the latest techniques in conservation. "The methodology, installations and team of the Real Fábrica de Tapices places us as among the main international leaders in the field of conservation of tapestries and historic textiles." This visit is truly a once in a lifetime experience for those who are passionate in the creation and conservation of textiles.

From Madrid, we will travel together to Costa Blanca, over 120 miles of white sand beaches on the Mediterranean coast. You will enjoy some free time to relax on the beach and explore the coastal cities. During our time here we will travel to the city of Cartagena to visit the National Museum of Underwater Archeology where they have just opened "The Oceanic Navigation" display. You will see a selection of pieces from the Nuestra Señora de las Mercedes, a ship that sank in 1804. Included are some of the shipwreck treasures that were recovered by a U.S. salvage company who after a lengthy court case gave up the ownership to Spain.

If you are still ready for more...Restoration Journeys will continue on to Seville in the southern region of Spain called Andalucia. Seville is an amazing city with a mix of cultures from Spanish to Arab and influences from Roman to Jewish. Here we will offer optional excursions to Granada, the Strait of Gibraltar, and Spanish wine tastings.

We hope you are able to join us in our "Restoration Journey" to breathtaking Spain!
