Trip Polices...Please understand the following policies are in effect for all ASC trips and by signing this contract, you agree to follow such policies.

All trip participants must be current members by December 1.

Trip sign ups are restricted to club members from the previous year for the first 30 days .

Trip package will allow flexibility in package for no air, if applicable, number of lift tickets, and age discounts, if available. No partial night packages will be sold.

Everyone staying the lodging property must a registered person on the trip....no overnight guests. Special considerations may be requested, with prior board approval, and determined compensation will be decided. The approval of this special request must be agreed upon by all room or condo mates. Unregistered guests will be asked to immediate leave the property.

It is understood that a credit card will be held by the lodging property for all incidentals or damage.

Inappropriate behavior at any point during the trip (including excessive complaints filed by other trip participants) and violations of the trip policies will not be tolerated and acted upon immediately. The concern will then be brought to the trip committee for review with a follow up report and recommendation to the board.

Only registered trip participants can order tickets. Each participant may request ONE extra day ticket at a discount rate (if mountain and vendor agree) for a friend who might live near our trip location. This extra ticket must be ordered and paid for with the final trip payment.

Any deviation of the proposed travels plans during the trip will be at the discretion of the trip leader(s), with input from board members and trip committee on the trip, as well as input from travelers, as needed. In the event of a safety issue, the input from transportation company or lodging property's decision will be strongly considered.

If you must cancel your reservation, ASC reserves the right to keep the first $25.00 due to costs that can not be reimbursed. After October 15th, any cancellations reimbursement will be through trip cancellation insurance only. Trip Cancellation/Interruption insurance is available & highly recommended. We do not provide the trip insurance as part of this package.
