

Hi lades,

Well, summer is on the wane. We are tanned and shriveled from the pool (not old age), the kids have all done their back to school shopping, I've shopped for clothes with my granddaughter till I dropped, and then my husband Art took over with the school supplies. I admit that I'll miss it next year because Shea is a senior now and will be off to college next year. That's life, I guess.

Just wanted to let you know about a new activity for our club. One of our newest members, Judy Galloway, has introduced us to the Southern Living Cooking Club. Judy came to a board meeting last month and explained how the cooking club works, and a group of us gave it a try last week. I explained the procedure at our last luncheon, and I hope some of you will be interested and will try it in future months. JoJo Keller, Judy's daughter, took pictures of our recipes before we shared our item. It felt like we were in a magazine photo shoot. What a fun way to make new friends!

We had a nice turnout for Bingo in August, and it's always a fun day. I'm really looking forward to Amy Sweezey, our guest speaker for September. She wakes me up five days a week, and her forecasts help me plan my wardrobe for the day.

That's it for now. Thanks again for your wonderful response to the request for school supplies. Watch out for the school buses and speed limit signs! And, hey, do you know what teachers make? They make a difference!

See you next month.

Joan

Meet Our Members

Tina Parrish was born and raised in San Diego, CA. She married a Navy man in Key West, FL in 2007 and lived in Oahu, HI, Whidbey Island, WA, and Virginia Beach, VA before landing in Oviedo, FL in 2008. She joined Newcomers immediately upon arriving in Central Florida, and says she has met some wonderful ladies over the past ten years. She has served the club as VP-Membership and interim Hospitality Chair.

In her leisure time, Tina enjoys Bible study, shopping, playing Bunko, collecting art and spending time with her girlfriends. Tina adds, "I love and adore my awesome husband, Randy. And we have a really cool rescue dog named Zorro."

Marge Ahearn moved to Florida in 1973 and lives in Casselberry. An avid Mah Jongg player, she decided to join Newcomers in 2008 after playing Mah Jongg with former member Mary Jane Godfrey. In recent years, she and DeDe Fluhr have served the club as 50-50 ticket sales co-chairs. "I enjoy visiting with everyone at the monthly luncheons," says Marge, "and am happy that our 50-50 ticket sales help raise money for the club."

Marge worked in finance at AT&T for 28 years in New York and Florida. She has three grown children and two grandchildren. After retiring, she decided to join a variety of organizations, including Newcomers, DOES, and Central Florida Spokes. "My life is currently filled with many activities and wonderful people," she notes.

September Birthdays

11 Pam Richards
18 Shirley McMenamin
25 Ruth White

Asters and morning glories are the birth flowers of September, and the gemstone is the sapphire. Asters are symbols of powerful love. Perhaps because of their positive symbolism, according to folklore they once were burned to ward off serpents. Morning glories are simple symbols of affection.

ANNOUNCING A NEW COOKING CLUB

Have you ever flipped through a cooking magazine and made plans to try one of the featured recipes? If you are interested in joining a cooking club, we have one starting up in September. We're calling it "The Southern Living Cooking Club." Here's how easy it is to participate:

1. Find a copy of Southern Living magazine for the month you plan to attend.
2. Choose a recipe you would like to cook (selections will be made on a first-come, first-serve basis so select two or three you would like to make).
3. Call or text Judy Galloway at 850-320-5400, and she will put you on the list which ultimately will create our menu.
4. Bring one prepared recipe to the luncheon which starts at 12 noon on the appointed day. We ask that your item be as close as possible to the one in Southern Living.
5. After we sample all the delicious recipes, we will share our experiences in cooking them. This is when you might say what you would do differently, or discuss something you may have added. Bring your Southern Living magazine so you can take notes.
6. You may want to bring some containers to take home foods that are left over!
7. The Southern Living Cooking Club will meet at noon on the second Thursday of the month at a different member's home each time. The September 13 meeting will be at Brenda Jones' house, 677 Oneida Lane, Winter Springs.
