

5th Sunday of Easter - Year C 18th - 19th May 2019

First Reading: Acts 14:21-27

They assembled the church and gave an account of all that God had done with them.

Paul and Barnabas went back through Lystra and Iconium to Antioch. They put fresh heart into the disciples, encouraging them to persevere in the faith. 'We all have to experience many hardships' they said 'before we enter the kingdom of God.' In each of these churches they appointed elders, and with prayer and fasting they commended them to the Lord in whom they had come to believe. They passed through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia. Then after proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia and from there sailed for Antioch, where they had originally been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now completed. On their arrival they assembled the church and gave an account of all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith to the pagans.

The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 144:8-13. R. cf. v.1

R/ I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

Second Reading: Apoc 21:1-5

He will wipe away all the tears from their eyes.

I, John saw a new heaven and a new earth; the first heaven and the first earth had disappeared now, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the holy city, and the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, as beautiful as a bride all dressed for her husband. Then I heard a loud voice call from the throne, 'You see this city? Here God lives among men. He will make his home among them; they shall be his people, and he will be their God; his name is God-with-them. He will wipe away all tears from their eyes; there will be no more death, and no more mourning or sadness. The world of the past has gone.' Then the One sitting on the throne spoke: 'Now I am making the whole of creation new.'

The Word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation: Jn 13:34

Alleluia, alleluia! I give you a new commandment: love one another as I have loved you. Alleluia!

Gospel: John 13:31-35

I give you a new commandment: love one another.

When Judas had gone Jesus said: 'Now has the Son of Man been glorified, and in him God has been glorified. If God has been glorified in him, God will in turn glorify him in himself, and will glorify him very soon. 'My little children, I shall not be with you much longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another; just as I have loved you, you also must love one another. By this love you have for one another, everyone will know that you are my disciples.'

5TH SUNDAY OF EASTER - Year C 18th - 19th May 2019, Chaplaincy Sunday

Building Connection in the Spirit of Hope

In these weeks of Easter the liturgies have led us to reflect how the disciples rose out of fear and hopelessness to faith in the Risen Lord and came to terms with the future it opened without His physical presence amongst them. Today's Gospel reflects back upon the frightful drama that preceded the resurrection, centring on the night of Jesus' farewell meal with His disciples. Jesus' instructions to His beloved disciples were preceded by an act of humble service by washing the feet of His table companions - conventionally the duty of a household servant. Following this act is today's message of Jesus to all who would be faithful disciples and, with Him, be one with God. "I give you a new commandment: love one another; just as I have loved you, you must also love one another. By this love you have for one another, everyone will know that you are my disciples."

To love as Jesus loved was no small thing. It was to be the visible expression of God's impartial outreaching love for all; the connection to God as Father, Son, Spirit and to one another.

'The love which imitates the love of Jesus for others is therefore a practical, down to earth kind of love. It is self-forgetting and self-sacrificing for the wellbeing of others. True love is the opposite of selfishness. Selfishness builds barriers, even walls, between us and others. What frees us is caring about others, being friends, being sisters and brothers, good neighbours.' (Fr Brian GleesonCSP)

And of course the 'family' is our first community for receiving, sharing and nurturing life and learning to receive and practice love.

It is within the family that we first build connections with others, based on the deep knowledge that we are loved. Sometimes these ideal relationships are absent or break down. And in some tragic instances families become traumatised by instances of abuse or domestic violence, alienated from community through discrimination or split up through displacement and exile.

At these times our Christian community, grounded in proclaiming God's Love to the world, needs to review its priorities, rally around, support and bring hope to such individuals and families and strive as one to make our community a safe place where children, young people, the aged and vulnerable are respected, protected and loved. Let us pray for God's blessing on all families today.

Chaplaincy Sunday 2019, Sunday 19th May

The Melbourne Catholic Archbishop's Charitable Fund will be conducting its annual Chaplaincy Sunday Appeal in parishes to support the vital work of Catholic chaplains in our community this coming Sunday. The presence of Catholic chaplains in all the health, aged care, and justice systems across Melbourne is a crucial witness to our faith, a crucial dimension of our service of love, and a vital testimony to the value of life in all its stages. The focus for 2019 is healthcare Chaplaincy. Healthcare chaplains offer emotional, spiritual and sacramental support to patients and their families in Melbourne's major public hospitals, as well as hospitals in regional Victoria. Parishioners are encouraged to offer prayers and a financial donation to help provide continued spiritual and emotional comfort to families facing illness, pain, grief and death. If you would like further information about the Appeal or to donate online, please visit the Chaplaincy Sunday webpage www.cam.org.au/chaplaincy, or contact the Office of Philanthropy on 9926 5731.

A Broken Church for a Broken World: Day of Reflection

Saturday 25th May, 9.30am-4pm
Campion Centre of Ignatian Spirituality, 99 Studley Park Road, Kew
In a time when many church people feel bewilderment, shame, anger and despair; as our longing for a Christ-centred Church feels more urgent and palpable than ever, what are we to become? This day of reflection, led by Jacinta Bright and Terry Fanning, invites us to consider our vulnerability as a gift, painful as that might be, so that the Spirit might transform us at this time to be a Church of integrity; a Church for the margins; the broken body of Christ for, in and with a broken world.

Homelessness – What Parishes Can Do?

On Saturday 8th June 2019, with the onset of Winter, Catholic Social Services Victoria will host a forum "Homelessness – What can Parishes do?" at Cardinal Knox Centre, 383 Albert Street, East Melbourne, from 9.30am-1.00pm. Come and hear what the Australian Bishops have to say about making a home for everyone in our land, what the Christian community is already doing to assist, and join in discussions how you and your parish can help. Cost: $20 includes lunch. Bookings: <https://www.trybooking.com/BBQOR>; enquiries to Lucia Brick at lucia.brick@css.org.au, Tel. 03 9287 5566.

Extraordinary Month of Mission Song Contest 2019

Catholic Mission invites budding musicians to compose a song to celebrate Pope Francis' Extraordinary Month of Mission. Songwriters will use the medium of music and lyrics to give expression to our mission to make a difference in this world – by celebrating our baptismal call which centres our faith on the needs of the poor and oppressed. School students, youth groups, parish musicians and music students are invited to compose a song and submit it to the Diocesan Director of the Melbourne Diocese. The criteria you need to take into account are: 1. Produce a song which can be sent via Dropbox (melbourne.director@catholicmission.org.au) by Friday, 26th July. The time is short so the burst of inspiration is critical. 2. Be free to create a song that encourages us to lend a voice to the voiceless. 3. Internationally the competition asks that within the lyrics "baptised and sent" is included. Locally there is much scope for your own expression of mission. For further details contact: Kevin Meese, Diocesan Director on 0411256112 Email: melbourne.director@catholicmission.org.au Catholic Mission 400 Albert St, East Melbourne VIC 3002

Our Easter Challenge

In Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis observes: 'Christ's resurrection is not an event of the past; it contains a vital power which has permeated this world. Where all seems to be dead, signs of the resurrection suddenly spring up. It is an irresistible force' (§276). And perhaps this is our Easter challenge: to open our eyes to the signs of the resurrection. To help to roll the stones of life away. To be light for others. So may our hearts truly become Easter hearts—awake to the presence of the resurrected Jesus, who continues to breathe life and bring peace into this world of ours.
