

Eugene Jacquez is a Voting Member of the Rio Grande Roundtable representing Costilla County since February 2013. He is a resident of Chama, Colorado. Eugene is a retired school teacher. He has also been instrumental in the creation/writing of the Acequia By-Laws and their incorporation with the Secretary of State. He continues a small farming operation and enjoys gardening, riding horses, and hunting for arrowheads.

Water Views: This is an element that keeps the world turning. Without it we wouldn't exist. We must protect and use it for our existence and to carry on the tradition and cultural values that our forefathers left for us to carry on.