

The Racine Concert Band and the J.I. Case High Symphonic Band perform a joint concert in the Case H.S. Theater at 7:30 pm on Tuesday May 21st.

Max Feiler conducts the Case Symphonic Band in performances of music from Lin-Manuel Miranda's "Hamilton," "Chorale" by Vaclav Nelhybel, and Jared Spears' "Scenario". Frank Erickson arrangements of James Bond movie themes and Clare Grundman's American Folk Rhapsody No. 2 close the Case program. A recent UW-Parkside Music graduate with concentrations in Music Education, Violin Performance and Jazz Studies, Feiler is completing his first year as Director of Instrumental Music at Case.

Conductor Mark Eichner leads the Racine Concert Band performing Sinfonia, "The River", by Dutch composer Juriaan Andriessen, ballet music from "Spartacus" by Armenian composer Aram Khachaturian and "From Every Horizon", Pulitzer Prize winner Norman Dello Joio's tone poem to New York. Eichner's new arrangement of Handel's "Air and Variations", better known by the nickname "The Harmonious Blacksmith", will be premiered.

The bands combine forces for a grand finale, "Fandango", a 1952 light classic favorite from the pen of Floyd Perkins.

Located at 7345 Washington Avenue, the Case Theater is accessed from the North Theater Door and free parking is available in the North Student Lot. Standard RUSD admission fees apply: adults $5: $4 for students, and $3 for seniors and children 6 and under.
