Wayne Hall
CAEW #33, Table of Mark

Well our last walk for 2004 is around the corner. Florence McArthur, Lay Director, for Walk #74 needs all of our support. I am sure it will be "The best walk ever"!

As we close out this year I want to thank all of you for every meal cooked and served, every piece of agape, all the snacks, every face at candlelight, every chair and table moved, every candle lit, every song sung, every pilgrim sponsored, every voice at serenade, every tear at closing, every talk on grace, every floor swept, and most of all every prayer prayed.

You, the Central Alabama Emmaus Community, have shown the Agape - Grace of God to almost 500 new pilgrims this year! Take a moment to think of the thousands- wives, husbands, children and friends- that you have touched for eternity.

As the last time I will get to address you as your Central Alabama Emmaus Community Lay Director I want to thank you, but more important, my Savior, Jesus, for letting me, all of us be part of such a wonderful ministry.

God Bless You and Yours,
Wayne Hall

Glen Pugh
Blue Lake Walk to Emmaus # 45, Table of Peter

As we prepare for the last Emmaus walk of this year there are many of us who may be breathing a sigh of accomplishment and relief. This was our first year of attempting eleven walks. In addition to the eleven walks we were also attempting to change how the background team was chosen. When something new is attempted there are bound to be a variety of conflicting thoughts and emotions. Adding an eleventh walk and changing the way we assemble the background team did that for us.

As I watched this community come together I was amazed at how well everything did in fact happen. I am sure that along the way there were many things that I was not aware of and many situations in which it appeared disaster was imminent. However, it is clear that each walk happened, God was glorified, and lives were touched.

The spiritual lesson for all of us in this is that no matter what changes we may feel we need to make in Central Alabama Walk to Emmaus, God's presence will be made known and He will be lifted up. Each time I am reminded of this reality it always brings me comfort and in some way gives me a peace.

As we close out one year of Central Alabama Walk to Emmaus and forge into another, we need to remember that God really is in control and whatever direction we end up going in, everything will work out as long as our focus is on Him.

Decolores, Glen Pugh

A Point to Ponder written by Rusty Rustenback:

"You and I live in an age when only a rare minority of individuals desire to spend their lives in pursuit of objectives which are bigger than they are. In our age, for most people, when they die it will be as though they never lived."

Vince Lombardi "The quality of a person's life is in direct proportion to their commitment to excellence, regardless of their chosen field on endeavor."

G.K. Chesterton "All men matter. It's the hardest thing in theology to believe."

The best time to plant a tree was 20 years ago. The second best time is now.
Chinese proverb

Progress always involves risk; you can't progress to second base and also keep your foot on first.
