Teach Anyone, Anything, Anywhere Using A Virtual Classroom.

Share your knowledge with the world.

Whether you're a teacher who's interested in taking your teaching skills online and making it your full-time occupation, or looking to do some part-time tutoring for extra money and experience, more and more traditional teachers are turning to the online virtual classroom. There are multitudes of benefits to you and your students. From eliminating your commute to work and saving gas, to being able to provide one-on-one instruction to your students without having to leave your cozy home, or teaching English to students around the world, our workshop will give you the skill set you need to get started right away.

You're A Great Teacher. Now, Let Us Show You How To Become A Great ONLINE TEACHER

Our workshop will get you started right away!

You may be intimidated or even scared to approach the idea of using a virtual classroom to teach. That's the typical feeling from many teachers before they take our workshop. But those feelings change once they complete the three hour training. Teachers tell us that the same confidence they have teaching in a traditional classroom is carried into their online classroom too. And, they say the new skill set has become an invaluable asset not only to their career and bank account, but to their students too!

Workshop Overview

What you can expect to learn.

Our three-hour workshop will teach you the technical end of teaching online. When you complete our workshop you'll have these online teaching skills:

- Scheduling & inviting students to your teaching session.
- Using the classroom tools, sharing your screen, annotating, highlighting, using the whiteboard and more.
- Adding curriculum, documents, presentations and web resources, using software during a presentation.
- Session recording for sharing and record keeping.
- Troubleshooting.
- Role playing and preparing for your first session.

You'll also receive our workshop presentation for review and practice.
