UPCOMING KH EVENTS

ψ KH Book Club: Thursday, Aug 22 at 7:30 PM at the home of Alice Twombly. We will be reading Goodbye, Columbus by Phillip Roth. We will be discussing the title story and any two others of your choice. The six short stories in Goodbye, Columbus deal with the concerns of second and third-generation assimilated American Jews as they leave the ethnic ghettos of their parents and grandparents and go on to college, to white-collar professions, and to life in the suburbs. The book won the 1960 U.S. National Book Award for Fiction.

ψ High Holy Day Services: The High Holidays are just around the corner. Erev Rosh Hashanah is Sunday September 9. Followed by Yom Kippur Kol Nidre the evening of Tuesday, September 18. Services will be led by Rabbi Josh Rabin and by members of our community. As usual, our services are free and open to all. We encourage you to invite friends and relatives to our services; however we would appreciate knowing how many will be attending so we can make preparations for welcoming our guests. In the next few weeks you will receive a mailing with an RSVP form. Please fill it out and let us know how many of your family and freinds will be attending.

ψ Sukkot with our New Rabbi: Sukkot will be very special this year Lindsey Healey Pollack will be taking the pulpit as the next rabbi of Kol HaNeshamah. Please join us on Monday September 24 for Sukkot services and our annual barbecue lunch as we welcome Rabbi Lindsey on her first official day as the spiritual leader of our community.
