1. How did ideas about national identity change in the United States in response to involvement in the Spanish – American War and the foreign policies that followed it?
2. What were the causes and effects of the Spanish-American war, Big Stick foreign policy, Dollar Diplomacy, and Moral Diplomacy?

One more thing....

Review the terms below and then summarize their historical significance in terms of American imperialism.

The "White Man's Burden" is a poem by Rudyard Kipling expounding the duty of the Western world to colonize and civilize "barbarians" in Africa and other non-white places by forcing upon them religion and Anglo-Saxon values. This was mostly used as an excuse to exploit their underprivileged lessers under the guise of helping them.	How is the White Man's Burden a cause for imperialism? What role did it play in later involvement in foreign affairs?
Puerto Rico was neither a state nor a territory. However, the Foraker Act of 1900 granted a limited degree of popular government to the Puerto Ricans. Puerto Rico is still an American territory today.	What other territories did America acquire during this era? Why were they desired?
John Philip Sousa wrote rousing military marching band music that boosted patriotism and support for the Spanish-American War. Patriotism continued to increase following the war.	How did the war impact relations between North and South?
William Howard Taft was so fond of the Filipino people that he called them his "little brown brothers." William Howard Taft became the civil governor of the Philippines in 1901, and then president of the United States in 1909.	What does Taft's view of Filipinos reveal about American foreign policy?
In the summer of 1899, John Hay urged trading powers to announce their leaseholds or spheres of influence in China with the Open Door Note. This note also promoted the respect of certain Chinese rights and the ideal of fair competition, but Hay did not consult the Chinese. All trading powers agreed except for Russia.	What does the Open Door Policy reveal about American foreign policy?
The "Boxers" were uber patriotic Chinese who did not approve of the Open Door Policy. Their war cry was to "Kill foreign devils!" They killed 200 whites including many Christian missionaries. It is known as the Boxer Rebellion.	What was the result of the Boxer Rebellion?
