A Holiday Message

Rabbi Joseph Lichtman
(from the 2001 BY Bulletin)

Every year, it is told, just before Yom Kippur, the Belzer Rebbe would ascend the Bima and call out in a loud voice, Shlosha d'varim tzarich adam l'omar b'soch beiso erev Shabbos im chasheicha: Isartem, Airavtem, Hadliku es haneir? "A man is obligated to say three things in his house before Shabbos at dusk, 'Did you separate the tithe, Did you arrange the eiruv and did you kindle the Shabbos lights?'"

The Rebbe interpreted erev Shabbos im chasheicha as Erev Yom Kippur just before Kol Nidre when there is no more time left to do t'shuvah and he must remind his household of three things: 1) Isartem - The Aseres y'may t'shuvah have passed, 2) Airavtem - It is already Erev Yom Kippur? 3) Hadliku es haneir - The Yom Kippur candles are already lit. So he shouted, "When do you expect to repent? If not now then when?"

As we stand at the threshold of the New Year, we too have an obligation to take stock and realize that the days are fleeing by. We have to ask ourselves, will there be enough time to do T'shuvah? For don't we all want to stand before the Throne of Justice as innocent lambs free of any taint of sin? So we daven with more kavana, beat our breasts and ask for forgiveness from Alm-ghty G-d.

We read in the Torah on Rosh Hashana the episode of Hagar and Yishmael. When the Angel appears and says to Hagar, Al tira, ki shama Elokim es kol hanaar ba'asher hu sham. - "Fear not, for Hashem has heard the voice of the lad as he is now." Although Yishmael was destined to become wicked later in life, G-d does not judge him by later standards of behavior, but as he is now.

We too, as G-d surely knows, will return to our "old ways" at the end of Aseres y'may t'shuvah, But we implore Him not to judge us as we will become later, but rather, as we are now. For now we appear as supplicants, petitioners, dressed in Talis and Kittle, looking like angels and free from sin. Judge us we pray, as we are now.

May I wish all our mispalilim that this year be a year of peace, health and prosperity, for us and Klal Yisroel in Eretz Yisroel. Amen. ✡

The members and Officers of Bais Yitzchok extend their sincere condolences to our members and friends who have suffered recent losses -

- The family of Noach Horowitz (Chaim Noach ben Altar Yehuda v'Beracha Yocheved) z"l, was our esteemed past Vice President, Board Member and active Shul participant. For many years, along with this wife, Annabelle, y'badla l'chaim tovim v'arukim, they were mainstays of our Shul, prior to returning to Eretz Yisrael. Condolences to Annabelle, her children, David, Gil and Ruth.

- The family of Mrs. Chanah Kaiser (Chana bas Feiga) z"l, a longtime member of our Shul and beloved wife of Hermann, mother of Herbie and Hindi Kaiser. Her ever-present smile, in-depth knowledge of Tanach and welcoming spirit will be missed. Born in Gelsenkirchen, (north Rhine-Westphalia state in Germany), Mrs Kaiser came to the US before the War and brought with her a vast Judaic acumen, always presented with her distinct accent. Her leyaya was held at Bais Yitzchok with the Shul filled to capacity.

Condolences to, y'badlu l'chaim, her husband, Mendel Farkas, daughter, Phyllis, and son, Zev (Yerushalyim). It was rare not to see Mrs. Farkas in Shul every Shabbos and Yom Tov for the decades the Farkas Family has been with BY.
