

WEST Newsmagazine

New sculpture coming to city of Manchester, Missouri

March 17, 2020 Bonnie Krueger

For the third year in a row, the city of Manchester's Parks, Recreation, & Arts Department is continuing its participation in the Creative Community Alliance's [CCA] regional "Sculpture on the Move" program.

"Slices in Heaven" by C.R. Gray will be installed in Paul A. Schroeder Park this May. [Photo: City of Manchester]

According to the CCA's website, the "Sculpture on the Move program" is, " ... designed to foster relationships between communities and artists, as well as to grow art appreciation across our region."

The program has been around since 2018.

"Sculpture on the Move" is a collaborative sculpture loan program involving eighteen communities across the state of Missouri. Some of the local communities participating this year include the cities of Chesterfield, Maryland Heights and Creve Coeur.