

Jim & Sue Wilson

Jim and Sue Wilson were raised in Baraga and graduated from Baraga High School in 1977. They were high school sweethearts and married in 1980. Jim & Sue are the third generation to own the family business Wilkinson's General Store. Sue has been the Business Manager of Baraga Area School's for the past 28 years.

They have three married children: Tim (Lisa) Wilson, Jen (Rick) Knisely, and Christine (Brandon) Scroggs. They have four grandchildren: Kyler, Charlie, Will, and Adelyn.

Throughout the years Jim and Sue have been involved in various community and school activities such as the Baraga Fire Department and Auxiliary, Baraga Lumberjack Days, BAS Booster Club, and Baraga Co. Relay for Life. In addition, you will find them involved in whatever activities their children/grandchildren are involved with. They are both active members of Holy Cross Lutheran Church.

Jim and Sue would like to thank the Baraga Lumberjack Committee for the hours they put in throughout the year to provide us with this awesome celebration every Fourth of July!

