PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Pastor Allegra Hoots

"Glory to God in the highest, [and] on earth peace, [and] goodwill toward men [people]!"

Luke 2:14(NKJ)

Dear Friends,

Greetings to you in the holy name of the Lord Jesus Christ, our blessed Redeemer! I hope you are in good health, have a happy heart, and are optimistic about the future.

With the busy Thanksgiving holiday behind us, and Advent in full swing, our attention has shifted from visiting with loved ones and obsessing over buying, preparing, and eating more food in a few days than we usually eat in a week. Instead, like millions of Christians worldwide, we have immersed ourselves in spiritual activities that help prepare our hearts to celebrate December 25, the date western churches have set aside to commemorate Jesus' birth.

The Advent themes of hope, peace, love, and joy remind people that Jesus' birth assures the world things will get better despite tough times. Advent messages diminish concerns about the continuing spread and mutation of the Coronavirus, the rising cost of food and fuel, intense political divisions that threaten to topple democracy, and heightened social unrest.

During Advent, Christians think about and discuss the importance of Jesus' birth to world history and in the lives of individuals. Scripture readings, especially from the four gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John) coupled with lessons from the prophetic books of Jeremiah and Isaiah, prompt folk to identify the links between Jesus of Nazareth and the birth of the Messiah foretold by the Hebrew prophets.

The Scriptures affirm God's love for all people, including underdogs. Bible passages also remind us that adverse circumstances are temporary, and God's love is more powerful than the social constructs humans erect to separate and isolate each other.

Thinking about the birth of Christ stirs cheer, goodwill, and friendliness. Those thoughts cause people to look forward with anxious anticipation to giving gifts on Christmas in joyful celebration of Jesus' birth- God's greatest gift to humanity. They also prompt folk to remember that a gift's true worth is measured by the spirit in which it is given and its significance to the giver, not its monetary cost or social value.

Furthermore, Advent reminds us that Christmas celebrations acknowledge God's sovereignty and faithfulness. The Christmas narrative reveals the fulfillment of God's promise to send a Savior (Isaiah 9:6 and John 1:29) to deliver humanity from the power and consequences of sin. That knowledge undergirded by the Holy Spirit enables folk to have hope despite facing personal trials and other challenges that threaten to disrupt peace on every level.

Looking to Christmas, Advent motivates us to celebrate by echoing the sentiment of Luke 2:14: "Glory to God in the highest, peace, and goodwill toward all."

Merry Christmas, and God bless!

NATIVITY OF JESUS

The nativity of Jesus, nativity of Christ, birth of Christ or birth of Jesus is described in the biblical gospels of Luke and Matthew. The two accounts agree that Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, his mother Mary was betrothed to a man named Joseph, who was descended from King David and was not his biological father, and that his birth was caused by divine intervention.

The nativity is the basis for the Christian holiday of Christmas on December 25, and plays a major role in the Christian liturgical year. Many Christians traditionally display small manger scenes depicting the nativity in their homes, or attend Nativity Plays or Christmas pageants focusing on the nativity cycle in the Bible. Elaborate nativity displays called "creche scenes", featuring life-sized statues, are a tradition in many continental European countries during the Christmas season.

Christmas ~ What is Christmas?

Christians celebrate Christmas Day on December 25th as the anniversary of the birth of Jesus of Nazareth, a spiritual leader whose teachings form the basis of their religion. Popular customs include exchanging gifts, decorating Christmas trees, attending church and sharing meals with family and friends.

Is Christmas Really the Day Jesus Was Born?

In the early years of Christianity, Easter was the main holiday; the birth of Jesus was not celebrated. In the fourth century, church officials decided to institute the birth of Jesus as a holiday. Unfortunately, the Bible does not mention a date for his birth.

For centuries, Christmas was celebrated not as a single day, but as a whole season in parts of the world, beginning with December 24, Christmas Eve. Perhaps the practice of celebrating the evening before the big day is an echo from ancient Jewish reckoning. Among earlier Jews, a day began at six in the evening and ran until six the following evening. Had not Moses written: "An evening and a morning were the first day"?

Christmas means "Christ-mass." Although the date is a guess, the tradition of observing it goes back to at least the fourth century. Under the influence of the church, Christian traditions replaced pagan solstice festivals throughout Europe. Often the more innocent pagan practices (such as bringing in a Yule log, decorating with holly and the like) were carried over into the Christmas observance, transfigured with new meaning.

Make your gift meaningful and from the heart.

Most gifts are free.

The Christian Meaning Behind Ancient Traditions

Evergreen Trees were the symbol of eternal life. Martin Luther introduced them to the Reformation Church as a picture of our endless life in Christ, by bringing in a tree to his family on Christmas Eve lit with candles (Isaiah 60:13).

Candles are a picture that Christ is the Light of the world (John 8).

Holly speaks of the thorns in His crown (Matthew 27:29).

Red is a color of Christmas that speaks of Christ's blood and death.

Gifts are a reminder of the gifts of the Magi to baby Jesus. Each of them speak to a component of His incarnation: Majesty in life, Bitterest Agony in Death and He as God's Perfect gift to us (Matthew 2).

Responding to HIV/AIDS

As Presbyterians, we are called to stand with our brothers and sisters living with HIV/AIDS and offer them compassion and support. Medical advances have been made and people are able to manage their HIV infection through antiretroviral therapy, but social stigma still exists, making life difficult for the 36.9 million people worldwide currently living with HIV/AIDS.

World AIDS Day takes place on 1 December each year. It's an opportunity for people worldwide to unite in the fight against HIV, to show support for people living with HIV, and to commemorate those who have died from an AIDS-related illness. Founded in 1988, World AIDS Day was the first ever global health day.

Why is World AIDS Day Important?

Globally, there are an estimated 38 million people who are living with HIV/AIDS. Despite the virus only being identified in 1984, more than 35 million people have died of HIV or AIDS related illnesses, making it one of the most destructive pandemics in history.

Today, scientific advances have been made in HIV treatment, there are laws to protect people living with HIV and we understand so much more about the condition. Despite this, people do not know the facts about how to protect themselves and others, and stigma and discrimination remain a reality for many people living with the condition.

World AIDS Day is important because it reminds the public and government that HIV has not gone away – there is still a vital need to raise money, increase awareness, fight prejudice and improve education.

“My kingdom is not from this world.” — John 18:36

Human Rights Day

2021 Theme:

EQUALITY - Reducing inequalities, advancing human rights

Where, after all, do universal human rights begin? In small places, close to home -- so close and so small that they cannot be seen on any maps of the world. [...] Unless these rights have meaning there, they have little meaning anywhere. Without concerted citizen action to uphold them close to home, we shall look in vain for progress in the larger world."

Eleanor Roosevelt

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), a milestone document, proclaims the inalienable rights that everyone is entitled to as a human being - regardless of race, colour, religion, sex, language, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status.

The principles of equality and non-discrimination are at the heart of human rights. Equality is aligned with the UN approach framework on Leaving No One Behind: Equality and Non-Discrimination at the Heart of Sustainable Development. This includes addressing and finding solutions for deep-rooted forms of discrimination that have affected the most vulnerable people in societies, including women and girls, indigenous peoples, people of African descent, LGBTI people, migrants and people with disabilities, among others.

The Presbyterian Ministry at the United Nations has a long history in the global community. Active in the United Nations since its formation in 1945, the church has held special consultative status through the UN Economic and Social Council since 1998. This allows the Presbyterian voice to be heard by the global audience and contribute to its agenda by attending conferences, making statements and taking part in advocacy and networking.

Amid the restless spirits and often-tough diplomacy of the United Nations, the Presbyterian Ministry at the United Nations helps inspire, equip and connect Presbyterians for ministry as faithful disciples of Jesus in the global community. We educate with the hope of helping individuals live out God's call in Christ to live with compassion, seek peace, and pursue justice wherever they go.

A CHRISTMAS PRAYER

Eternal God, the hope of all humankind, you gave us the greatest gift of all in your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Son of God, you came as God's Light to shine brightly in the darkness of minds and hearts; bathe our world in your Light.

Jesus Christ, Word made flesh, make a way for the Good News of your Kingdom to reach every home, every heart, everywhere.

Protect and preserve the labourers who courageously declare the glory of your Gospel throughout the world. Provide for their every need and be their strength and joy.

Be the comforter, defender and provider of the poor, the helpless, the cold, the hungry, the orphaned, the weary, the oppressed, those persecuted for their faith in you, the sick, those who mourn, the aged and the little children.

Reveal yourself to those who do not know your immense love.

Bless those who rejoice at your coming!

Glorious Lord, we join our voices to the heavenly host and say: "Glory to God in heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom His favour rests!"
Amen.

Christmas Joy

November 28 - December 19, 2021

By giving to the Christmas Joy Offering, you honor God's gift of Jesus Christ by providing assistance to current and retired church workers in their time of need and developing our future leaders at Presbyterian-related schools and colleges equipping communities of color.

developing & sustaining our leaders

Each year during the Advent and Christmas season, we turn our eyes to Bethlehem and celebrate the wondrous gift of Jesus Christ, our Savior.

God has blessed the Church with incredible leadership in every time and place, but those leaders often need to be supported by their communities as well. This Offering addresses the support needed by some of our leaders, including supporting leadership development for communities of color, and providing support for Presbyterian church workers in their time of need.

Jesus Is Coming Again

Theme: We look forward to Jesus' return

Object: Christmas decorations

Scripture: Luke 21:25-36

Christmas is coming soon. It's easy to tell. We see the signs all around us. (Point to Christmas decorations.) What signs have you seen? (Allow kids to answer.) We see Christmas decorations on houses; we hear Christmas songs on the radio; we see commercials on TV, and more. If we didn't have all of these things to remind us, how could we tell that Christmas is coming? (Pause for responses.)

Two thousand years ago, there was no TV or radio announcing that a child would be born and that He would be the Savior of the world. When Jesus was born, very few people even knew about it. But it was an event that God had promised, and it was foretold by prophets many years before. Many people had been looking forward to the coming of the Savior, but they didn't know exactly when He was coming.

We're entering the season of Advent. Advent means "the coming of something very important." It is a period of time when we look forward to the celebration of Jesus' birth at Christmas--and we also look forward to Jesus' return.

Jesus promised to come again, and we look forward to it, just as people 2,000 years ago looked forward to the Savior being born. No one knows exactly when Jesus will come back. It isn't marked on the calendar, but we're watching and waiting, expectantly.

As we prepare to celebrate the birthday of our Savior, let's also be sure we prepare for His exciting return.

Dear God, we thank You for this special time of year and its important meaning to us. We praise You for keeping your promise to send a Savior who will come back again. In Jesus' name, amen.

Memory Verse:

She will bear a Son; and you shall call His name Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins.
