

Moeller, Alger

Alger "Al" Moeller, 67, of Allegan, died Saturday, October 23, 2004, at his home. Mr. Moeller was born April 13, 1937 in Bad Axe, the son of George and Celia (Ignash) Moeller. Al graduated from Kinde North Huron High School, Class of 1956. He worked for many years as a machinist for the former Active Industries in Elkton. He left there to get his teaching degree at Ferris State University where he graduated in 1974. He taught at Delton Kellogg for over 11 years in their machine shop. In 1987, Al started teaching machine tool technology at the Allegan County Intermediate School District where he retired in 1999. He was a very active member of Immanuel Lutheran Church for over 17 years. He loved the Lord, he enjoyed hunting and most sports, he was a member of the Michigan Distance Riders Club, and spent a great deal of time with his horses. He was united in marriage to Donna (Truemner) Kilgus on August 25, 1962 in Linkville. Surviving are his wife, Donna; three children, Ray and Dott Moeller, of Parchment, Melea Hogancamp, of Fremont, and Angela and Mike DeBolt, of Saline; seven grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; his mother, Celia Moeller, of Carson City; two brothers, Leon and Audry Moeller, of Nevada, Maurice and Cathy Moeller, of Indiana; three sisters, Sonja Wojno, of St. Clair Shores, Alice and Rich Yaroch, of Port Austin, and Joan Zwolinski, of Carson City; several nieces, nephews and cousins. Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, October 26, 2004, at the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Allegan. Pastors Dean Beckwith and Michael Anton will officiate. Visitation will be from 6 to 8 p.m. Monday at the Gorden Funeral Residence, Allegan Chapel. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Church Building Fund.
