

WILD WEST TURKEY STAMPEDE!

Turkey legs go fast at the fair!

Words can barely do justice to the hilarious buffoonery of the award winning Wild West Turkey Stampede. You have to see it to believe it. And once you do... racing will never be the same.

Flocks of tom turkeys tear laps around the racetrack in a mad capped dash to catch Big Red, the remote control RC truck filled with delicious turkey treats.

Their athleticism will surprise you. Their full throttle racing form will blow you away. And all the while, you will barely be able to catch your breath from laughing so hard, your belly aches!

Featured on Discovery Channel's Dirty Jobs with host, Mike Rowe, these talented toms and their Big Red motorized nemesis are sure to leave you laughing.

The only trained turkeys in the world! A true spectacle of agricultural proportions!
