

A unique program to launch you to financial independence and self-sufficiency

Are you MOTIVATED to:

- ✓ Achieve a degree or credential?
- ✓ Manage your money responsibly?
 - ✓ Position yourself for in-demand jobs?
 - ✓ Increase your self-esteem and confidence?
 - ✓ Seek information and make good decisions?

HOW?

Through a FREE 15-week engaging and FUN seminar followed by long-term, ongoing support.

Opportunities include:

- Time management tips
- Money management strategies
- Informational interviews
- Paid internships
- Eligibility for a $500 scholarship
- Career exploration
- Identifying your strengths
- A mentor
- Academic and career guidance
- Professional development workshops
- Social events and networking
- A caring community of professionals and support from the Future Link family

WHEN AND WHERE? FALL 2019

- Wednesdays, August 28-December 11, 4:30-7:00 PM, Montgomery College, Rockville

WHO?

- Must live in Montgomery County, be 18 – 25 years old, AND be faced with financial difficulty
- Have a high school diploma or GED, but FEWER than 30 college credits
- Need support navigating the complex pathway through education to career
- Priority given to first-generation college students

APPLY NOW: <https://form.jotform.com/90595159304158>

QUESTIONS: Allison Reznick, Director of Mentoring & Communications
202.302.2234 : areznick@futurelinkmd.org : www.futurelinkmd.org