

Royal British Legion Belbroughton Branch

(which covers the communities of Clent, Fairfield and Belbroughton)

2021 Remembrance Services

This year is the Centenary of the founding of the British Legion and our local branch. Due to the lockdown in force, it was not possible to celebrate this in May, the month of our founding.

The Legion will be running its Poppy Appeal for the first 2 weeks of November, as well as laying wreaths at our three War Memorials .

Belbroughton – Sunday 14th November

It is Belbroughton's turn for our Parade. This will leave The Talbot car park at 10:30am and parade to the Holy Trinity Church for the service commencing at 10:45am. We will be parading our Standard and we have booked Pipes and Drums to lead the Parade. Weather permitting, the service will be held outdoors adjacent to the War Memorial and as part of the service we will lay the wreaths. Everyone is welcome to join the short Parade from the Talbot to the Church. Please come along!

Clent – Sunday 14th November

A remembrance service will be held at St Leonard's starting at 10:45am and wreaths will be laid at the War Memorial at the end of the service.

Fairfield – Thursday 11th November

There will be no remembrance service at St Mark's Church this year. We will hold a short service at the War Memorial from 10:45am on the 11th which will include the laying of wreaths.