WHY SHOULD WE PRAY FOR MORE VOCATIONS TO THE PRIESTHOOD?

It is no secret that we need more priests in the Catholic Church. Giving your whole life to the service of the Church is counter-cultural and many young people do not even consider it. Or they do not think they are “worthy” of the priesthood. But God calls us all to a specific vocation. So, we should pray that those being called to the priesthood will hear and answer that call.

When you are thinking about extra ways to spend your time in prayer during Lent, consider praying for more vocations to the priesthood. Maybe it will even become an extra habit which extends beyond Lent.

Ways to pray for vocations to the priesthood

Pray a Hail Mary, Glory Be, and Our Father for your parish pastor every day. Pastors serve their parishes with their lives. Give them your support through prayer. At the same time, pray for more young men to enter the priesthood.

Whenever you go to mass, say an extra prayer before mass for the celebrant and one for vocations.

Say a rosary for vocations. Commit to say it daily, weekly, or just once.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops site also has a nice list of prayers for vocations. There are over 40 different prayers listed there.

Your wealth is measured by the lack of your needs, not by the abundance of your possessions.

Updated Catholic Populations for 2022

Both the General Social Survey (GSS) and Gallup estimate that 22% of U.S. adults self-identify as Catholic. As of July 1, 2022, the Census Bureau estimated that there were 332,838,183 residents of the United States and that 77.8% of them are ages 18 and older. Applying these two percentages to that population total we estimate that there are 56,968,583 Catholic adults in the country. If we assume the children of some of these adults have similar religious affiliations to their parents then we expect that there is likely 73,224,400 Catholics of any age in the country.
