

Mark E. Dauberman, CPA, EMBA

Mark Dauberman Seminars

Entrepreneurship Forum and Internal Control Institute

Mark provides CPE and technical staff training for CPA firms, private industry, state CPA societies, and government organizations. His topics include accounting, compilation and review, ethics, fraud, internal and external auditing, internal control development (COSO), entrepreneurship, and developing a business plan.

Mark is also an expert witness for cases involving ethics, fraud, and the compliance with standards in the performance of professional services.

Mark's public accounting experience includes working with Kenneth Leventhal & Company and more recently, he was a partner at NSBN, a Beverly Hills CPA and business consulting firm. Mark's industry experience includes serving as assistant controller of a large trucking and warehousing firm along with controller and Vice President of Finance and Administration for major real estate development companies. Mark also spent nearly 30 years as an entrepreneur, operating a company that prepared individuals for the CPA exam nationwide.

Mark has been involved in accounting education at CSU Northridge, CSU San Bernardino, Loyola Marymount University and UCLA. He obtained his bachelor's degree in accounting from California State University at Northridge. He obtained his Executive MBA at the Peter Drucker and Masatoshi Ito School of Management at Claremont Graduate University, where he previously had been a student of Dr. Drucker's. He authored "Knowledge Based Preparation, Compilation, and Review Engagements" for CCH and updated their checklists for SSARS engagements. He also served as Senior Editor for Roger CPA Review.