SCOTUS to Hear NY Gun Rights Case Nov. 3rd

Ammoland.Com -> Gun Rights News.

"The Supreme Court of the United States has set Wednesday, Nov. 3 as the date it will hear the long-awaited case of New York State Rifle & Pistol Association v. Bruen, which challenges the Empire State's "good cause" requirement for anyone seeking a license to carry a firearm outside the home for personal protection."

"New York is one of only eight states that still maintain a "may issue" scheme for handing out carry permits, and frequently authorities find an excuse to not hand them out. Other states have adopted "shall issue" statutes, and nearly half of the states now have what is generically called "Constitutional carry" laws, which means people may legally carry with no permit at all. Many grassroots gun rights activists insist the Second Amendment is all the permit they need."

September Adjusted Background Checks 2nd Highest Ever.

Excerpt from USA Gun Blog (September 2021 gun sales – USA Gun Blog)

"September saw another 1,350,754 adjusted background checks, a good measure of gun sales activity. That's far less than a year ago during the height of the pandemic buying binge, but easily the second highest September total on record."
