Rear Commodore's Report

I am really looking forward to this new adventure as your next Rear Commodore! Special thanks to Neal and Mary Duett for laying next years' ground work and helping me get up to speed.

The Halloween cruise at Bell Harbor Marina was a lot fun. Several boats were there with decorations and costumes. Prizes went to Rick & Julie Shelton for Best Decorated Boat "MYPAWSEA", Don Lobdell as "Scary Clown" for Best Guy Costume, Jon and Laura Shelton as "Chick-Magnet and Parker as "Outcome" for Best Group Costume, and Mike Lesieur for Best Carved Pumpkin.

Next up we have a cruise for Thanksgiving weekend at Bell Harbor Marina November 23 thru 25. Five slips have been reserved for the club, but you must call Bell Harbor 206-787-3952 to reserve your slip ASAP.

Looking ahead we are planning the Sweetheart Cruise for the weekend of February 8th, 2019. If you have any suggestions, please email me at jrschnelz@gmail.com.

We have a calendar full of fun events and are excited for another great year for the club cruising and hanging out together.
