Honoring our Last Years Artist of the Month October 2017

Katie Jackson "I was looking for pictures to hang in my house and I just couldn't find the right colors or subject matter for my project. I have always been a creative person so I started painting in 1981 and created via painting what I was looking for." Her teachers included Clara Skinner and in 1986 started taking classes from Lois Williamson. She loves watercolor and also does the other medium of oil. She has taken many workshops and her favorite subject is florals. Congratulations on being Artist of the Month..

Due to the length of last years Christmas party it was decided the 5X7 painting exchange will be at the November meeting. We will be able to swap and have lots of fun so get busy! Either a 5X7 painting or an equivalent. It will be a very fun evening.
