President's Message

Fran Maddox

The April 8th meeting was a wonderful gathering of friends who love the accordion. Our members welcomed back some old friends as well as some new people interested in our club.

We practiced for the performance at the Forest Grove Social on April 23 from 10:30-12:15 am. Thanks to Jeff Nelson for his competent conducting of "3 Coins in A Fountain" and "Moscow Nights". His efforts are very much appreciated. We recorded our songs too so each of us can listen to the songs and get our parts more finely tuned.

Following that practice, Lynn Haldeman led our Music Circle. Lynn re-arranged several pieces already in the music circle book. It was fun playing all these pieces. Lynn graciously led the music circles since February. Thank you, Lynn.

The meeting started with the introduction of a very special couple

Coreen Bergholm and Ken Presthus. Two years ago (to the day) Ken had a stem cell transplant for his leukemia condition. Several of us have followed his journey through this two-year period. Thanks to Coreen's caregiving and Ken's determination they were able to travel from Astoria and play beautiful music for
