Thanksgiving Day October 10th

It is fitting for God's people to offer public thanks for all the gifts we have received. The bountiful produce of the earth is a visible sign of the many blessings God wants to shower on us through Christ. Our God also wants us to share the goods of the earth with all people.

THE PARISH OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED MONDAY OCTOBER 10TH

INFORMATION MEETING FOR CONFIRMATION—We will be holding an information meeting for those preparing for confirmation (ages 12 or above) to review what to expect over the coming year. There will be a time for registration prior to the information meeting. However, it is strongly suggested that you register ahead of time to avoid missing out that evening. Registration is available by visiting our website at www.gasmoncton.com and going to the faith development page to select the forms for Confirmation registration. You can submit the form online or print the form (using the word or pdf document) and drop it off at our office, place it in the collection basket at mass or bring it with you to the meeting. Deadlines for registration will be Oct. 18th.

The meeting will be held in the basement of St. Augustine's Church on Oct. 18th with registration time from 6:00 – 6:30 pm followed by the info meeting. This meeting is for the candidate (youth asking for confirmation) and one parent/adult only. It is very important that the candidate attend this meeting so they can be aware of the program for the upcoming year. If you require further information regarding confirmation, please contact Eileen at eileen.caissie@gasmoncton.com

BAPTISM
Celebration

St. Augustine's
The Sacrament of Holy Baptism
will be celebrated Sunday October 16th, 11:00am
Please join us as we welcome new members into our Faith Family

GRATEFUL, THANKFUL, BLESSED

Today's gospel relates the story of Jesus and the 10 lepers. Jesus heard their prayer, their cry of mercy and sent them immediately to the priests (who were designated by law, to certify healings that had occurred). Those 10 lepers trusted; they did not remain there until they were cured, no: they trusted and went immediately and, while on their way, they were cured. Only one of the lepers - a Samaritan, returned to thank Jesus for healing him. This narrative, according to Pope Francis, "so to speak, divides the world in two: those who do not give thanks and those who do; those who take everything as if it is owed them, and those who welcome everything as a gift, a grace."

This weekend, coincidentally, is Thanksgiving weekend for us. I remember as a child, making a paper turkey on construction paper with 'feathers' for its tail. On each feather was the name of someone or something that I was grateful for and I took it home to be displayed on our fridge, as a reminder that we all should be thankful for what we have. My 'thanksgiving the time but made me to have people in my life comforts that others did not changed since my innocent complexities, challenges interfere with coping with Goodness wrote, 'when we and material comforts, we recognize those who are left without. When we give thanks for our families and friends, we call to mind those who are alone and forgotten, the lonely, the orphaned. When we give thanks for our freedom, we dutifully acknowledge those who live under the harsh rule of oppression and injustice. Truly, it is in this act of giving thanks that we recognize our responsibility to affect positive change in the world.'

Pope Francis said: "Above all, let us not forget to thank: if we are bearers of gratitude, the world itself will become better, even if only a little bit, but that is enough to transmit a bit of hope. The world needs hope. And, with gratitude, with this habit of saying Thank You, we transmit a bit of hope. Everything is united and everything is connected, and everyone needs to do his or her part, wherever we are."

I was fortunate to grow up with parents who often reminded my sister and me that if we wish to live in a kind world, we must offer kindness to others. "Thank You" was a commonly used phrase in our house. I have tried to continue this legacy of gratitude to my children and now I know it continues. My granddaughter, who just turned 3, out of nowhere while we were babysitting the other night, said, "Thank you, Nanny. I love you." A legacy of gratitude continues.

I'll end this "Thanksgiving theme" reflection with words from a poster I copied down years ago. Let us be aware of our own gratitude this Thanksgiving and pray our 'bit of hope' will remain forever.

Thanks to those who hated me - you made me stronger
Thanks to those who loved me - you made my heart grow fonder
Thanks to those who cared - you made me feel important
Thanks to those who entered into my life - you made me who I am today
Thanks to those who left - you showed me that nothing lasts forever
Thanks to those who stayed - you showed me true friendship
Thanks to those who listened - you made me feel like I was worth it.

Under the guidance of Saint Thomas Aquinas and his thorough study of the Church's teachings of the Gospels in his book "The Golden Chain" <http://www.immaculatalibrary.com/books/catena-aurea.html> we invite you to join us for an hour of study on the upcoming Sunday Gospel as we explore what the Church Fathers and Doctors of the Catholic Church preached and wrote about. We will discover what our Popes had to say about the Gospel and how they used them to guide us in their encyclicals.

This week's Gospel Luke 18:1-8 What does St. Cyril, St. Ambros, Pope Francis and other Fathers have to say about prayed doctrine.
