

Travis Smith has served as Superintendent of the San Luis Valley Irrigation District since 1992. He has been part of the Roundtable since its inception and has served in both CWCB and IBCC liaison roles and is currently a Member at Large. Travis has also served as Rio Grande Basin Director on the Colorado Water Conservation Board and Rio Grande Basin IBCC. He is Project Leader of the Rio Grande Cooperative Project, chairman of RWEACT (Rio Grande Watershed Emergency Action Coordination Team) and a member of the Forest Health Advisory Council. He is also a Board Member for the Colorado Water Congress and was the 2017 recipient of the Wayne N. Aspinall Water Leader of the Year Award. Travis is a strong advocate for the Rio Grande Basin by building partnerships based on trust and respect with in the water user community. Travis and his wife Maureen ranch on San Francisco Creek near Del Norte.